Program To Be Sunday

Dedication Set For New School

READY FOR DEDICATION. The new Stanton Local High School in Hammondsville will be dedicated in a public ceremony Sunday afternoon at 2. This view of the $1½ million campus-style structure shows part of the circular "Aid Center" containing a library, the dominant feature of the modernistic plant. The round building is linked by passageways to the junior high wing to the left, and the senior high wing and a large greenhouse for biological experiments.

A new high school in Hammondsville considered one of the foremost in the nation in boldness of design and functional architecture will be dedicated in a public ceremony Sunday afternoon at 2 (DST).

Opened in mid - September after more than a year's work, the ultra - modern Stanton Local High School is framed like jewell in a valley surrounded by wooded terrain.

SUPT. C. P. Henderson said State Sen. Oliver Ocasek of Northfield will present the dedication address at the school plant, on a 60-acre tract along State Route 213.

Other speakers will include Jefferson County School Supt. Ray B. Roshon, J. A. Raeder of Dover, contractor; Robert F. Beatty of East Liverpool, architect; Dr. W. S. Banfield, president of the Stanton Board of Education, Supt. Henderson, and Robert Walker, a member of the State Board of Education.

"Open house" will be held after the program to provide the public with an opportunity to view the colorful interior of the campus - styled building.

THE "SCHOOL of tomorrow," so radically designed that it could perhaps pass for a small college, is the fulfillment of a design prepared by Beatty in co-operation with five Ohio school districts and one from West Virginia.

Working with a rigid set of educational standards prepared by Ohio State University's College of Education, Beatty and Supt. Henderson used their early materials with six other selected districts in participating in a project financed by a grant of over $37,000 from the Ford Foundation and conducted by OSU.

Purpose of the project was to design a school flexible enough to cope with the most far-reaching changes which could be envisioned in education.

NATIONALLY - recognized consultants on secondary school curriculum, architecture and culture teamed up to convert the specifications agreed necessary into preliminary architecture plans.

The school was constructed with proceeds of a $1,598,000 bond issue passed by Stanton Local voters in 1960.

The basic design is a campus-style school, with two academic wings leading into the most eye-catching of all the features—a circular building housing a library, study hall, audio - visual and teacher preparation areas.

Emphasis was placed on designing a modern library when the researchers agreed that books are of chief importance in any curriculum, and that some schools built libraries as only an "incidental" part of the school.

Kennedy Discusses Situation In Berlin With German Aide

Plans Eyed In Possible New Crisis

Schroeder Seeking Allied Support For Rejecting Red Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy confers today with West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder on Allied plans for meeting a possible new Communist thrust against the Western position in Berlin.

Schroeder is understood to have warned administration officials that the East German regime, with Russian backing, may try to impose new control over civilian traffic moving into Berlin from West Germany.

Schroeder, here since Sunday, is seeking Allied support for rejection of such a move.

It is not yet clear what retaliatory action West Germany and its allies could take. Officials indicate there has been some talk of an economic boycott if the East Germans demand regular diplomatic visas for travel to Berlin across their territory.

The meeting is the first in a series of talks the President plans on the Berlin situation. He will receive Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Thursday. Then on Nov. 7, the day after the congressional elections, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will open consultations here with Kennedy.

Meanwhile, Foy D. Kohler, the new U.S. ambassador to Moscow, conferred Tuesday with Khrushchev in the Russian capital. It was believed certain Berlin was high on the agenda.

A brief communique issued after the session said the talk was held in an atmosphere of sincerity and mutual understanding. "They touched important international issues and also questions of Soviet-American relations," the communique said.

State Department officials in Washington are now studying Kohler's report.

Dedication Staged

Crowd Views Road Rites

East Liverpool's new California Hollow-West End Freeway was dedicated late this morning in a program attended by public officials and civic leaders, who then toured the four-lane improvement in an auto caravan that ended at the Travelers Hotel for a luncheon program.

Although Mayor Bert H. Goodballet snipped a pennant - strewn rope to symbolize dedication of the $6 million project, the road will not be open to traffic officially until about the end of October, as one of the contractors has some last-minute work to be completed.

A crowd estimated at several hundred attended the ceremony.

Mayor Goodballet, left, is shown welcoming Ralph J. Lehman, administrator of metropolitan freeways for the State Highway Department, who was principal speaker.

It's the southernmost link in the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway which will connect East Liverpool and Ashtabula.

DiSalle Hints At Probe Of State Auditor

Governor Intimates Irregular Practices In Rhodes' Office

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he's considering an attempt to have the special grand jury convened to probe liquor scandal charges also look into what he intimates are irregular practices in the state auditor's office.

At the rate the liquor probe is plodding along, however, it would appear questionable it can tackle anything else in time to release findings by Nov. 6. That's the date of the election in which DiSalle, a Democrat, opposes Republican State Auditor James A. Rhodes for governor—just 20 days away.

Subpoenas in the liquor case issued after the grand jury was organized Monday have been voided on a technicality. They are being reissued, but the principals won't appear this week as originally scheduled.

And there's still no word from, or of, prospective key witness Joseph Makler, Chicago distiller.

Gilbert Bilenkin, president of Famous Brands, Inc., Dayton, who had been subpoenaed to appear before the jury Thursday, now won't appear until next week. Adrian B. Fink Jr., Cleveland Republican attorney appointed special counsel for the grand jury upon DiSalle's recommendation Tuesday, said new subpoenaes would be prepared requiring Bilenkin to produce his company operating records Monday and appear for questioning Tuesday.

Fink said he wanted especially to get Makler, president of Waterfill & Frazier Distillery Co., Chicago, before the jury. Makler's recent allegations that he had to pay Famous Brands and Quality Associates, Inc., so-called influence money before the state liquor monopoly would list and sell his whisky in 1959 led to the investigation. Soon after he made the charge, however, he dropped from sight and Illinois authorities have been unsuccessful in efforts to locate him.

Others Fink wants to question include James Carroll, Columbus liquor agent affiliated with Quality Associates. The special counsel said he also would subpoena records of Ohio transactions from Barton Distilling Co., Chicago, and M. S. Walker Co., Boston, both of which reported payments to Famous Brands.

'Actions Based On Law'

Not In Contempt, Barnett Declares

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi says his actions in the University of Mississippi desegregation case are based on "what I believe to be the law" and that he is not in contempt of any court.

His statement, issued Tuesday in Jackson, Miss., came as the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals considered whether to imprison or fine him. Earlier, it had found him guilty of civil contempt for his refusal to permit Negro James H. Meredith to enroll at Ole Miss.

There was no indication when the court would rule.

The Justice Department has asked the court to fine Barnett $100,000 for failing between court hearings Oct. 2 and 12 to take positive action to purge himself of contempt. It also asked an additional fine of $10,000 a day starting Oct. 12 until he does so.

Barnett's attorney, Charles Clark, told the court the governor did not consider himself in contempt, because Meredith was attending the university.

"I have never taken the position that I have purged myself," Barnett said Tuesday. "Nor have I authorized anyone to take such a position on my behalf."

He added, "My position is that I have upheld the law and am not in contempt of any court."

Barnett also said: "My position is based upon the Constitution of the United States and the constitution and laws of Mississippi. My every decision in this matter has been formed after careful and deliberate consideration of what I believe to be the law."

Barnett failed to appear, and did not send his attorneys, to the Sept. 28 hearing at which he was convicted of contempt.

In another development Tuesday, attorneys for former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker asked U.S. Dist. Judge Claud Clayton to revoke his order that Walker undergo a psychiatric examination.

Walker, arrested during the riots here, is free in $50,000 bond on the condition he undergo a mental test to see if he is mentally competent to stand trial on four federal charges including leading an insurrection.

The motion was filed at U.S. District Court in Oxford. It said the order for a mental test violates the constitutional rights of the former general.

Meanwhile, Meredith continued his increasingly uneventful attendance at Ole Miss.

Two Indicted Confident Of Vindication

Congressmen Cited In Mail Fraud Case; Seek Speedy Trial

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two congressmen, indicted by a federal grand jury on conspiracy and conflict-of-interest charges have expressed confidence they will be vindicated.

Reps. Thomas F. Johnson, D-Md., and Frank W. Boykin, D-Ala., said they were shocked at the indictments handed down Tuesday, and expressed their desire for a speedy trial.

The jury charged they received compensation for trying to persuade the Department of Justice to postpone the mail fraud trial of J. Kenneth Edlin, 64, of Miami, Fla., and attempting ultimately to have the charges dropped.

Edlin pleaded no contest to the charges, made in connection with the operation of the First Colony Savings and Loan Association in Maryland, and was sentenced last April to six months in jail. He also was fined $8,000. Edlin was released last Wednesday from federal prison.

Johnson issued a statement Tuesday night.

"I was deeply shocked and amazed by the charges made against me and I am positive that I will be completely vindicated," he said.

In the November election Johnson faces Rogers C. B. Morton, a Republican and the brother of Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky.

Boykin, 77, also indicated he wants a quick trial, and expressed confidence he will be vindicated. He failed to win the Democratic nomination May 29 after 14 terms in the House.

"I'm anxious for the trial to come real quick," he said. "I have never had a nickel's worth of business with the savings and loans in my life."

Tax Revision Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has signed into law a tax revision bill that carries a $1-billion incentive to businesses that modernize.

The bill, Kennedy said in a statement accompanying Tuesday's signing, "makes a good start on bringing our tax structure up to date and provides a favorable context for the over-all tax reform program I intend to propose to the next Congress."

Meanwhile, he said, the bill "will stimulate the economy and provide a greater measure of fairness in our tax system."

Although Congress turned down the President's proposal for setting up a system of withholding taxes on interest and dividend income, Kennedy said the requirements it established for reporting such income and interest would help improve compliance with tax laws.

The Treasury estimates it is now losing about $1 billion a year in revenue because taxpayers fail to report all the dividends and interest they receive.

Corporations now will be required to report to the Treasury and to the recipient all dividend payments totaling more than $10 a year. Savings institutions will have to do the same for interest payments.

U.S. Slates Another High A-Test Shot

Seeks To Redeem Some Prestige In Try This Weekend

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States is wasting no time trying to redeem its slumping nuclear prestige by scheduling another high-altitude shot in the Pacific this weekend—just four days after the latest flop.

A low-yield nuclear device with a punch of less than 20,000 tons of TNT is set to be touched off at an expected height of 20 to 30 miles near Johnston Island.

As in previous tests, it will be carried aloft by a missile. But this time the vehicle probably won't be a Thor, the cause of four previous failures in the trouble-plagued 1962 Pacific nuclear series.

Indications were a specially constructed booster utilizing the motor from a surface-to-surface Sergeant missile would loft the payload to its firing altitude.

Injured Boy Better

LISBON — Russell Dixon, 17, of Elkton, critically injured in a car crash in Missiouri last week, while returning home from a Future Farmers convention, was allowed to sit in a wheelchair Tuesday and will be examined again to see if he can be removed to a local hospital or to his home, according to his mother, Mrs. Harold Dixon, who is at his bedside.

Kennedy Set For Political Wars Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy dashes back to the political wars today, and the big question is whether he will decide to shoot it out verbally with his predecessor, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Kennedy was scheduled to leave in mid-afternoon for Connecticut, where he will say kind words for his former welfare secretary, Abraham Ribicoff, who is running for the Senate.

Of far more interest is this:

Will there be unkind words of reply to Eisenhower? The former president, in a tone unusually bitter for him, said Kennedy has what he called "a dreary foreign policy."

"Too sad to talk about," Eisenhower said in a Boston speech Monday night.

Miffed at Kennedy's criticisms of his Republican administration, Eisenhower said:

"I doubt that anyone can persuade you that in the past 21 months there has been anything constructive on foreign relations to equal any part of that eight-year (Republican) record."

Kennedy has been exceptionally careful never to tangle with Eisenhower. Throughout the 1960 campaign he bore down on Republicans in general and Richard M. Nixon, the GOP candidate, in particular.

Eisenhower escaped direct criticism — and even drew some praise.

Since Kennedy won without attacking Eisenhower personally, he will be reluctant to change tactics now.

Leasing Plan Set For Hall At Wellsville

Board Of Control To Submit Proposal At Council Behest

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night approved a motion authorizing the Board of Control to submit to the regional Post Office headquarters at Cincinnati an agreement to lease the controversial City Hall-Post Office — if a $250,000 bond issue is passed at the Nov. 6 general election.

The action came after a long discussion. Councilman Allen Baldwin opposed the measure while Councilman William Stroble said he would vote to have the agreement submitted only if it were made known that he is opposed to the combination building.

A group of residents were in the audience seeking the action from Council. The price set for rental of the Post Office section in the proposed building was $9,500 a year.

Mrs. Helen Welch acted as primary spokesman for the group. Stroble said that if he approved the motion it would reflect his views and people would believe he favors the issue.

He finally agreed after the Rev. James Sanko pointed out from the

$108 Million Cost Seen

Most Of River-Lake Road To Be Opened In 3 Years

As the West End - California Hollow Freeway was dedicated this morning, the State Highway Department predicted that most of the 97-mile Lake Erie - Ohio River Highway — of which it is a segment — will be open to traffic within three years.

The four-lane section here is the southernmost segment of a freeway that eventually will link East Liverpool and Ashtabula at a total estimated cost of $108,343,196.

The road is being built under so-called federal aid primary financing, which means the state and the federal government each bear 50 per cent of the cost. Area supporters of the lake-river road are continuing efforts to have it made part of the federal interstate system, which would mean the U. S. would put up 90 per cent of the construction cost.

The Highway Department pointed out that the section of the lake-river road from Ashtabula south to Lisbon will be located on an entirely new right-of-way, designated State Route 11, which will free other north-south routes of a large volume of traffic.

Over 63 miles of the route are on the drawing boards, with plan completion for various segments set to allow contract dates within the next two years. Work now complete or under construction covers 14 miles.

The second East Liverpool segment of the lake-river road already is under construction from the north city limits to State Route 170. The total estimated cost is $4,029,340. The Great Lakes Construction Co. of Cleveland is the contractor.

A 15-mile stretch of the new road beginning at State Route 164, passing to the east of Lisbon, and ending at State Route 267 at Apples Corners is on the

Chester Council Sets Meeting On Thursday

Chester Council will meet Thursday night at 7:30 at the City Hall auditorium instead of tonight as regularly scheduled because some councilmen will be out of town today.

Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner, city solicitor, said she is uncertain if a ruling regarding temporary appointments of city personnel will be available. Council is currently considering 90-day appointments for city employes for a second time since July.

Keeping Apace With Progress

Today's formal dedication of the new Freeway and Monday night's action in Council toward improvement of St. Clair Ave. represent two of the most significant steps toward bettering the city's traffic conditions in years.

The Freeway will speed the flow of through traffic and will help relieve congestion in the business district.

The St. Clair Ave. project would provide a long-needed improvement of the narrow, hazardous and pitted roadway which leads through and to a large and growing residential area.

In the past 20 some years, the east-west arteries of W. 8th St. and Pennsylvania Ave. have undergone various changes to meet the mushrooming travel of trucks and cars through the city.

Now the Freeway will divert a heavy volume of north-south traffic from city streets and the widening of St. Clair Ave. will expedite the flow of local travel in the northern areas.

These two developments are among basic means of meeting the ever-expanding demands of our modern vehicular culture. Already work has been launched on another Freeway section, exemplifying the need to remain apace with these demands.

East Liverpool's reorganized traffic commission and the city administration face new problems connected with streets and roads, even as they solve the present ones.

The Freeway should permit a new analysis of the traffic flow in the downtown area to determine if there is a better system for handling the flow. Certainly there is a need to study possible methods to facilitate travel on lower St. Clair Ave.

The action of the majority of residents along St. Clair Ave. in supporting the proposed improvement and the action of other residents who have joined in the recent low-cost resurfacing projects on streets elsewhere show a vital interest in bettering the city and its streets.

Salute To Mr. Sayre

All who have joined forces to speed the improvement of St. Clair Ave. are to be commended, but a special salute is in order for Charles H. Sayre.

It was Mr. Sayre who worked long and hard to obtain the signatures necessary for the petition which was presented to Council, virtually assuring the project.

He had this to say: "It does my heart good to present this. This is one of the proudest nights of my life because I feel it is a project that will be for the good of East Liverpool.

"I hope this will provide an inducement for others to work on similar projects. I feel it is a step in the right direction, but more needs to be done."

The name of Mr. Sayre deservedly can be added to the list of the others who have gone beyond the call of duty to better the community in which they live.

Nothing Too Good For Government

Aside from the all too obvious fact the 87th Congress missed Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn, the Texans whose leadership had given it a sense of purpose, there is this not so obvious fact to make the 87th session memorable.

This may have been the session of Congress that capped the climax on spending.

The word "economy" never was heard, except briefly in the foreign aid debate and in occasional sputterings by people like Sen. Byrd of Virginia.

Except for a couple of World War II congresses when the United States was sparing no expense to win, this was the spendingest session of Congress in history. It hit a total of more than $101 billion and held it down to that staggering sum only because another $3.8 billion recommended by President Kennedy was turned down.

Why is this possible?

THIS WAS NOT the spendingest year for anyone else. It wasn't the spendingest year for producers of wealth who pay the bulk of the nation's tax revenue.

It wasn't the spendingest year for consumers of goods, who pay the rest of the nation's revenue. This was a belt-tightening year for everybody, except the government and those well-situated entrepreneurs who do most of their business with the government.

What happens? Why don't the spending habits of the public spenders reflect the financial climate of the times? What accounts for the fact that public spending never can be curtailed, though private spending can be and frequently must be?

How can it be explained that government continuously raises its "price" yet criticizes private enterprise for raising its "price"?

The answer is in an assumption made by all public spenders and mutely accepted by far too many taxpayers.

IT IS THE assumption that nothing is too good for government.

Its buildings must be of the best. Its working conditions must be of the best, its fringe benefits, its prerogatives, its perquisites.

Government must go first class.

Whatever it wants it says it wants for the good of the dear, dear people, therefore the dear people must not look a gift horse in the mouth even if they know the horse is wearing their own teeth, extracted by tax collectors.

If generals and admirals wring their hands with anxiety because a new gadget costing a billion dollars might give them something interesting to do, they must be relieved of their anxiety by giving them a billion to start and another billion to grow on.

If Washington needs another marble edifice to grace an area recently occupied by a slum, up goes the edifice, double-thick, double-high and double-fancy.

Nothing is too good for government.

IT IS RAPIDLY turning into the devouring monster in a people's republic that it had become centuries ago in the Old World, when starving mobs rioted in the streets to the distress of kings and their courtiers peering through the slatted windows of ornate palaces.

There are no starving mobs in America. There are no titles of nobility, no kings and no royal dynasty — not yet.

But there is this pernicious point of view that nothing is too good for government and it is up to the American people "to get up the scratch" — to pick up the check for all the truffles and the caviar to which the spenders insist all of us must become accustomed for their sake.

They're making headway, these spenders.

They made a lot of it in the second session of the 87th Congress —more than $101 billion over the dam — or nearly $105 billion if your young multimillionaire chief executive had been able to cut it even higher, wider and handsomer.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew:

Something tells me we've been over this ground before, probably several times, but it's like walking along a familiar road.

I am referring to the difference between an event and a crisis. You gave me the idea in your last letter when you said that too many emergencies had left you feeling numb. By that I suppose you mean you felt like a fireman in grass-fire season when alarms come in as fast as they can be answered.

A grass fire is an emergency, but not to the firemen called to put out grass fires. If the firemen arrive on time and know their business, putting out a grass fire is routine.

If everything goes all right and everybody keeps cool there is no emergency. There is no crisis. There is just an event. We always have grass fires in springtime.

We also have student riots on campuses, floods and roads that go to pieces when the frost goes out of the ground — all events. Some years ago we used to have coal strikes, which everybody viewed as national emergencies, except John L. Lewis, who used strikes to whittle down the supply of coal above ground.

At this season, we have the annual Berlin crisis, politicians cutting up one another in their frantic scramble for public office, football deaths and the annual shortages in public treasuries because all the money was spent earlier.

Month in and month out we have these repetitions of events that have been going on so long they are predictable. We have more weddings in June than we have in September. We have more deaths in January and February. More fires occur when the weather's cold. More suicides occur, according to something I read once, when the wind's blowing.

We have the World Series in October and we have influenza — Spanish, homegrown and Asiatic. Each year we have droughts and floods. If we wanted to ponder over statistical abstracts we could become as objective as those cold fish who fix up actuarial tables for insurance companies. They have the whole thing figured out like your chances of holding a straight flush in poker.

This would be a good thing for all of us to strive for. It would keep us from sweating so much blood. There are only two things in each life that properly can be called times of crisis — the instant when a life begins and the instant when it ends. And both of these, it goes without saying, are so commonplace they clearly shouldn't be thought of as anything but nature's inexorable routine of life and death.

Everything that happens is just another event — nothing to get excited about — unless it never happened before or is of such a momentous nature that it never can happen again.

If a mother had six live babies at once and they all stayed alive that would be exciting. But it wouldn't be an emergency in the sense that it would be an emergency if politicians got fluttery enough to start destroying one another with nuclear bombs while the rest of us snapped and popped in the heat. That would be exciting and it would be a sure-enough crisis. It never would have happened before and could never happen again.

Your aunt has been reading this over my shoulder and says it makes me sound like a sure-enough crisis myself because nothing like me ever happened before and could never happen again. How that woman loves me! It's frightening.

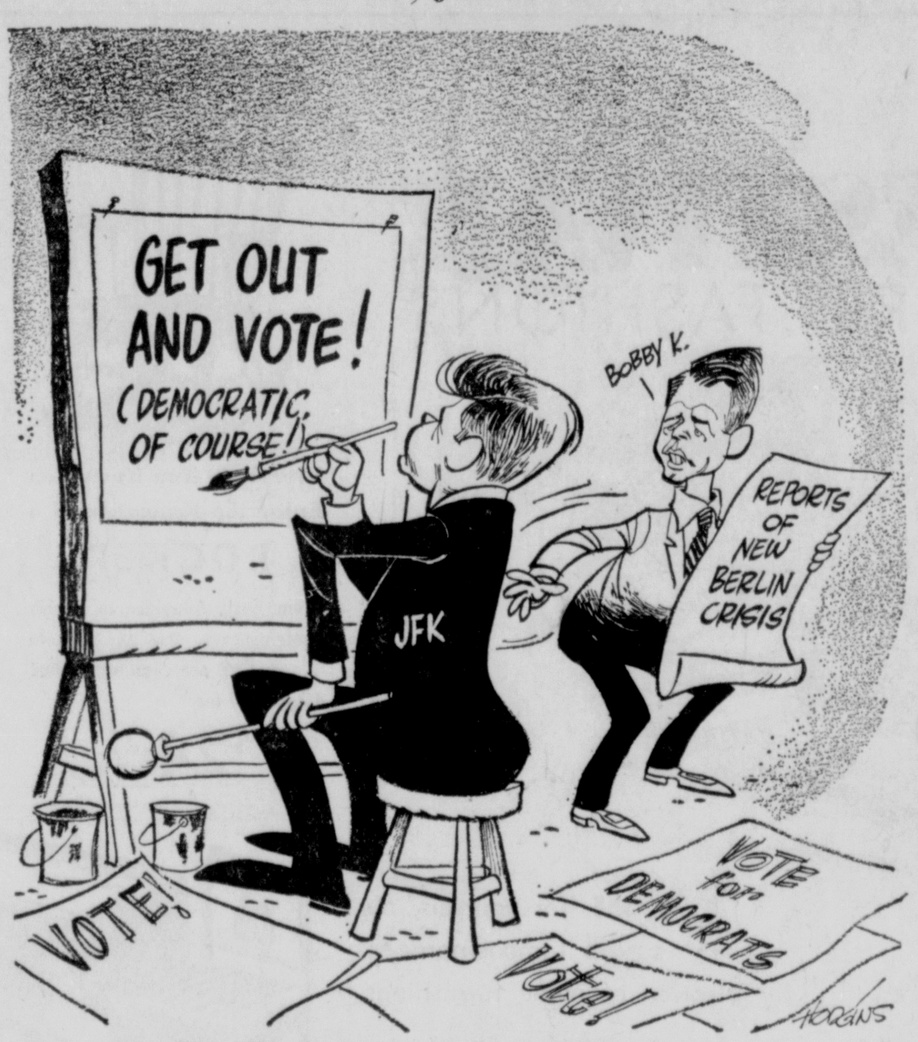

Regards to the family.

A Letter To Our Readers

This is National Newspaper Week, so we're taking the liberty of switching the pitch to write this letter to you readers for the space generally reserved for your letters to us.

We newspaper people, of course, are fiercely proud of our profession, as we're sure you are of yours. Because the framers of the Constitution recognized that we were—and would continue to be—in something of a special category, they wrote a clause in the First Amendment which said:

"Congress shall make no law. . . abridging the freedom of speech or of the press."

That protects our right to print the news you need to know to keep informed, to select your public officials in the light of full knowledge, to know what others are doing so you can judge what you should do yourself.

Freedom of the press was NOT written to provide unbridled license for newspapers or any other publications to ride roughshod over the public.

Freedom of speech does not give any individual the right to incite a riot, or to utter a false shout of "Fire!" in a crowded building, or to bear false witness against another.

THOSE FREEDOMS do guarantee the press and individuals the right to express their views without censorship.

They were written into the Constitution not for the special benefit of any segment of the population, but to protect the right of all the people to know. . . to know what's going on in their communities, their states and their nation, and what's in the minds of men.

The Review does not particularly enjoy reporting some of the sordid, sad, frustrating affairs it must report in order to keep its readers fully informed. It does so because that is a newspaper's duty. . . to inform the people that a slayer is at large, a danger exists, the public health is threatened, or a public official has gone astray.

IT IS OUR DUTY to list divorce actions as well as marriage licenses obtained; arrests made for alleged law violations, as well as high honors earned by individuals; defeats of candidates at the polls, as well as victories.

The glaring spotlight of publicity focused on an accused murderer is as much to guarantee him a fair and open trial as it is to inform the public of what has happened.

Newspapers have done their best to keep pace as our civilization has grown in complexity. We not only tell what happened, or who said what, but we try to tell why.

We do our best to report all shades of opinion in our news columns. We present our own, for the illumination of our readers, on this Editorial Page.

We do not expect everyone to agree with us, just as agreement on any issue seldom is unanimous. So we welcome differing opinions, as well as supporting comment, on this page in "Letters to the Editor."

WE COMMIT ourselves to great expense to obtain the major news of our community, the state, the nation, the entire world to keep our readers as fully informed as posssible. We utilize the services of our own staff, and others who are qualified, to dig behind the news to interpret what it means.

We enjoy best every opportunity we find to report and promote efforts for community development and betterment and progress, to support the good things and the individual and collective successes that, thank goodness, constantly are developing.

We are proud to be a member of the great news-gathering cooperative, The Associated Press, whose members cover every nook and cranny of the United States and send skilled correspondents to the far corners of the world, in order that American newspaper readers can keep informed.

We attempt to use a portion of our precious space to be informative, helpful and entertaining. We present photographs and drawings and maps to help our readers to understand better what they read.

We provide a superior market place to bring together all those who have goods and services to sell with those seeking goods and services. Our advertising columns are available to the most humble individual, at a price he can afford to pay, as well as to the biggest merchant.

ALL THESE THINGS combine to make up your newspaper—here as well as in other American communities.

We guard our freedom of the press zealously—for your benefit, so you can retain your precious right to know.

The moment we lose it, you lose. The moment we cease to serve you, we lose.

Freedom of the press and American liberty go hand in hand. They never can be separated.

That's the big reason we take the occasion, once a year, to celebrate National Newspaper Week—for YOU.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Miss Charlotte E. Bair of Dayton assumed her duties as supervisor of the physiotherapy department at City Hospital, succeeding Miss Pearl Brennan.

Arthur McDevitt was named president and Samuel Broadbent, vice president, at a meeting of the Washington Parent - Teacher Association.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Wayne Steffler, end on the Potter's 1941 eleven, scored his first TD as a collegiate gridder when he snagged an aerial in his team's 26-0 conquest of Westminster.

Fred Harris was elected hike master of the Eagle Patrol of Boy Scout Troop 14 at a meeting in the home of James Thomas of Pennsylvania Ave.

TEN YEARS AGO — Charles Galipo, 215 Walnut St., displayed eight coots and a mud duck he shot at Guilford Lake the second day of the duck hunting season.

The goal for the annual Community Fund drive in East Liverpool was set at $62,657.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 17, the 290th day of 1962. There are 75 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1777, Gen. Burgoyne surrendered his army of 5,000 British Redcoats to the American Colonies at Saratoga, N.Y. This was one of America's greatest victories.

On this date:

In 1683, the Charter of Liberties and Privileges was framed as the basis of government for New York City.

In 1863, President Lincoln called for 300,000 volunteers to serve three years in the Union Armies.

In 1903, the Alaska boundary dispute was settled in favor of the United States.

In 1941, Japan's Konoye government resigned and was replaced by one headed by Lt. Gen. Tojo.

In 1954, the Philadelphia Athletics baseball club was purchased by an eight-man syndicate and later moved to Kansas City.

Today's birthdays:

Actress Spring Byington is 64. Former American League President Will Harridge is 76.

Thought for today:

His time is forever, everywhere his place—Abraham Cowley.

Odd Facts

A thousand-foot shaft was started in October 1962 on the west coast of Puerto Rico, as a new project of Project Mohole, the effort to pierce the earth's crust for the first time.

Los Angeles surrounds the independent cities of San Fernando, Culver City and Beverly Hills.

Political Dereliction

By David Lawrence

Congress' Actions Called Irresponsible

Never in American history has there been revealed such a clear case of irresponsibility in government as has just been exhibited by the Congress and the President.

David Lawrence

The fiasco cannot be blamed entirely on either political party, or altogether on the President. 'It's the fault primarily of a system which provides no way by which the people can hold both the executive and the legislature responsible in the midst of a presidential term. Yet there is a congressional election a few weeks away, and President Kennedy is urging the people to vote Democratic instead of Republican. The reasons for this are not clear, for his own party is split. In fact, Congress itself is divided into four blocs. In addition, the delays and confusion of the last weeks of the session of Congress that has just adjourned were to a large extent the result of quarrels and disputes among the leaders of the President's own party.

Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo. chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said, for instance, on the floor of the House of Representatives last Saturday:

"I have sat under ten speakers — but I have never seen such biased and inept leadership."

MR. CANNON also criticized the Democratic party's majority leader, Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, charging that the latter offered to support him in his restrictions on the public works bill if he would permit certain appropriations to go through.

"In other words, gentlemen, justice is for sale," Rep. Cannon said. "No thought of principle. No thought of the obligation of office. It is a question of the highest bidder."

In England and Canada, under a parliamentary system, the people have a chance to fix party responsibility and to assure themselves that, in the same election, they will get a united leadership of the legislative and the executive.

Today, President Kennedy is campaigning around the country charging the Republican party is at fault for failure to enact all his proposals, when in reality this fundamental schism in his own party has brought constant dissension and division.

Mr. Kennedy is saying on the stump that the Republican party has been and is "against progress." But his opponents will reply that the Republican party is really opposed to "progress toward national bankruptcy."

The indicated deficit, for example, for the fiscal year that ends next June 30 is between $6 and $8 billion, although last January the President in his budget message to Congress predicted a surplus.

All this is happening even without any substantial tax cut. In fact, public spending has reached such a high rate that, making no allowance for a tax cut at the January session, the budget deficit for the fiscal year starting July 1 next is likely to be $11.1 billion according to estimates made by statistical experts who study the trends of government receipts and spending.

IF, MOREOVER, there should be a tax cut next year of around $7 billion — which is a modest amount compared to the promises being made — the deficit might reach $18 billion for the fiscal year ending a little more than 20 months from now.

The House of Representatives has wound up with the usual hypocritical speeches, wherein members of both parties praise each other. The past session, of course, deserves a modicum of applause only in the sense that public spending was not allowed to go any higher than it did.

The truth is that Congress has sought to appropriate funds for all kinds of social - welfare and public works projects. All of these doubtless can be defended as worthwhile at some or other but can the nation today afford unlimited spending irrespective of consequences?

Can any political party be called responsible if it insists on cutting taxes substantially when deficits are growing bigger and bigger?

A private citizen or business must forego luxuries or even worthwhile projects and see that the budget is balanced lest bankruptcy be induced. Apparently it is reasoned that it's all right for the government to disregard budgets, run a big deficit year after year, and risk a loss of confidence in the monetary unit.

The nation has been experiencing a business recession that isn't over yet. Mr. Kennedy expected the government's receipts to be $93 billion in the current fiscal year so that there would be a half - billion - dollar surplus. It turns out now that the receipts are to be $85.5 billion.

BUT SPENDING is being increased just the same. As for authorizations — not actual expenditures — Congress has just pushed the annual appropriations past the $100-billion mark for the first time in peacetime history.

So it's a case of fiscal irresponsibility — a belief that the nation can have its cake and eat it, too. It's a case also of political irresponsibility. For neither political party represents a solid front on the matter of national economy, although the conservative Democrats do have more allies in the Republican party than in their own.

Conservatism may, therefore, be readily defined nowadays. It means a policy of conserving the nation's fiscal soundness.

It is opposed to liberal spending and liberal authorizations of public money for things the nation doubtless should eventually have but cannot afford today in the midst of a cold war, when $50 billion is necessarily being spent each year for armament.

For Men Only?

By Terry Ferrer

NEW YORK

Room at the top of the academic pyramid is reserved for men only, and women who aspire to climb up higher have less of a chance today than they did 10 years ago.

This is the angry charge by Dr. Ethel J. Alpenfels, anthropologist and professor of education at New York University. From grade to graduate schools, she said, women "simply do not count" in promotions, scholarly honors or top administrative posts.

In leadership at any college, Dr. Alpenfels said, "the relative percentage of women is now less than it was 20 or even 10 years ago.

Four out of five of the full-time faculty in all types of institutions of higher learning are men. In private colleges, including women's colleges, women now represent only 14 per cent, which is less than it was 25 years ago." Yet the number of women college graduates has jumped from 55,000 in 1930 to 160,000 in 1960.

"The dean of women," she continued, "is quietly but rapidly being replaced by the male dean of students. Promotion to full professorship, if given at all, goes to the department of home economics or nursing or elementary education."

Dr. Alpenfels expressed her views in the October issue of the N.Y.U. Alumni News.

Turning to the schools, the anthropologist declared "for the first time in 100 years, more men than women are on the teaching staffs of our high schools.

Men teachers also have been steadily increasing in the elementary schools, once the women's stronghold. The males usually come in at the top rather than the bottom, "a factor responsible not only for the decline of women in the professions but for an uneasiness and growing frustration among many college - educated working women," Dr. Alpenfels said.

Originally welcomed in the elementary schools to offset "momism", men have stayed on "to perpetuate the stereotype that leadership, scholarship and administrative aptitude are not human qualities found in all gifted persons, but are the property of the male sex alone."

New School's Program Set

as an "Aid Center" and its unusual design — round instead of the usual rectangular shape—makes it the dominating feature of the entire plant.

There are connecting passageways to the junior high and senior high wings, and a large greenhouse for biological experiments.

The connecting links to each educational center are 20-foot wide, fireproof blue brick and glass passageways.

Jutting out to the north of the Aid Center to form a T is the administration section, providing space for the art, commercial and home economics departments.

Adjacent to these departments is a spacious lobby that serves as a social center of the school, with a completely - equipped refereshment stand, cafeteria and stainless steel kitchen.

TO THE west of the administration section is a pre-cast concrete structure housing the industrial arts and woodworking departments. The equipment includes a foundry, auto-repair shop, and special devices to remove dust from the rooms.

The aid center, study wings, administration and commercial - home economics departments are heated with electricity. The remainder of the school is heated by a gas-hot water system, with the heating units located in chambers above the corridor ceilings.

The floor of the lobby is decorated with a large design of the seal of the State of Ohio, with an accordion - type partition, and shrubs planted for decoration.

Further along the corridor from the lobby is the school auditorium with 600 seats of red fabric.

THE MODERNISTIC theme is fully accented in the auditorium in huge mosaic tile murals—41 feet long, 11 feet high — on the side of either wall.

Designed by Beatty and Frank Eggleston of the Summitville Tile Co., the mosaics depict school activities and the country's history. The color theme here is pink, dark brown and green. The overhead lighting can be dimmed slowly, adding to the entire effect of the room, by using switches on a massive, panel with 54 lighting controls.

Adjacent to the auditorium is a wing housing the vocal and instrumental music departments and their respective libraries and practice rooms.

ACROSS FROM the auditorium is a 1,000-seat gymnasium with side rooms for showers and lockerrooms for both home and visiting teams, and a laundry.

The gymnasium will probably be one of the most interesting points for school district sports fans to view during the open house, with many remembering the cramped quarters of the previous basketball court at the former school in Irondale. It's capacity was at most 30, and fans had to be turned away last year when the school compiled its second unbeaten season in a row.

Beyond the gymnasium is another facility seldom seen in schools in this area — an Olympic-size swimming pool, made of aluminum. Plans call for the natatorium to be open for the school district residents in the summer, as part of a year-round recreational program.

THE CLASSROOMS are well-lighted and colorful, with walls of glazed tile to the height of the chalk boards — a different color in each of the dozen rooms.

The science laboratories are equipped with modern equipment and each laboratory features a special project room for the more talented students. Built in pairs, the classrooms are separated by a small room to be used for material storage and another room for teacher-pupil conferences.

The administrative section is comprised of a general office, public room, a clinic with two patient rooms, offices for the superintendent and principal, Board of Education meeting room, and quarters for the guidance councilor and a communications control room.

Music is "piped" throughout the school during hours when classrooms are not in session.

IN THE home economics department, there is a kitchen with six complete stations equipped with three gas and three electric ranges, a laundry, livingroom, diningroom and bath, and sewing room.

The Art Department includes a pottery kiln, and ample work space. The Industrial Arts department has rooms for electricity and electronics classes, and metal arts including welding, foundry, sheet metal, machine shop and auto mechanics work. There is also a finishing room, planning room, offices and tool storage.

The building itself provides about 94,000 square feet of floor space.

NEARBY THE building, a new football field has been carved out of a sloping hillside. It boasts a cinder track, steel bleachers and a building with facilities for showers for home and visiting teams, and public restrooms.

There are also practice fields for the football team, baseball team and band. Two double tennis courts and an outside basketball court are being constructed in the rear of the school itself.

All corridor floors are of terrazo tile.

The building can accommodate approximately 500 pupils. There are 300 elementary pupils attending another new school in Empire, unique in that it is constructed on concrete pylons.

Bonds Forfeited By 2 For Lisbon Violations

LISBON — Two motorists forfeited bonds totaling $20 in Mayor Dean Stockman's court Tuesday when they failed to appear for scheduled hearings.

William Coleman Jr., 213 W. Chestnut St., forfeited $10 for failure to halt for a stop sign, and Herbert Lutton, 51, of 223 W. Washington St., forfeited $10 for failure to obey a blinker light on the square. Both were cited by village police.

U.S. Judge Dies

BALTIMORE (AP) — W. Calvin Chesnut, 89, a veteran U.S. district judge in Baltimore and one of the nation's oldest active jurists died Tuesday. Chesnut was appointed a federal judge in 1931 and remained active in the court until his death.

Area Principal Group Convenes

Seven from East Liverpool schools and three from Beaver Local schools attended the Ohio Valley Principals' Discussion Group meeting Tuesday night at Martins Ferry High School.

Attending from East Liverpool were George Hargraves, high school principal and president of the group this year; Bert Dawson, dean of boys; Mrs. Ruth Connor, dean of girls; Vernon Walrath, co-ordinator of diversified co-operative training; C. G. Means, principal of East Junior High and Tom Dixon, principal and Carl Pelini, assistant principal, both of Westgate.

Attending from Beaver Local were Lee Kirkland, high school principal; Franklin Sturgeon, assistant principal, and Ernest Skidmore, guidance director.

Charles Stroup, vocational supervisor of Martins Ferry schools, was speaker, discussing vocational education.

About 30 attended the meeting. Next is Nov. 20 at Brilliant.

State Fair Champion Cow Wins 2 Titles

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Commando Etta Mercury, quite a cow, returned to the scene of her 1962 State Fair grand championship and won the senior and grand championships of the All American Jersey Show at the Ohio Expositions Center Tuesday.

The star of the Chester Folck & Sons stable of Springfield won for her master a solid silver rotating trophy. Another Folck-bred animal Chief's Sons of Pat, who was purchased last summer by Dr. N. E. Lenahan of Columbus, had been judged champion bull of the Jersey show a day earlier.

Wellsville Club Hears Store Head

Dan Mason, manager of the Mason Foodliner at Wellsvlle, outlined the reasons for selecting Wellsville for the location of his store at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at the Hotel Wilk.

Mason said the store is a member of the IGA—Independent Grocers Alliance—which did a $4 billion business last year, compared to the $5 billion of the A. & P. chain. The location in Wellsville was decided upon as the result of a survey, he said.

The people want convenient parking, mass display and self service. He said the business is doing nicely and now employs 30 people. An addition is planned in the near future, including construction of more storage space beginning next week.

Sixteen were present. Richard Grills is president.

Set Of Standards Given For Leadership Training

A set of standards spelling out the course to follow in becoming a leader was suggested by a Chester minister in addressing the Rotary Club at Tuesday's luncheon meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

The Rev. C. Donald Vogel of the First United Presbyterian Church termed the leadership code a "Leader's Digest" and it reflects his years as an officer in the Navy.

A native of Pittsburgh who has served in Chester two years, Rev. Vogel is also a commander in the Naval Reserves and chaplain of the unit headquartered in Steubenville.

The minister suggested five particular points to follow in practicing effective leadership:

"Know your mission, know your men, be a leader yourself, trust your assistants, and share the light of leadership with others."

"Knowing your mission used to be fairly easy in both military and personal life, but it's not easy today," Rev. Vogel explained in pointing to technical advancements in warfare and a rapidly changing world. Early settlers knew their mission was to build a new way of life, but it can no longer be described in concrete, romantic terms, Rev. Vogel said.

The speaker declared that "knowing your men" often becomes difficult for leaders because of piles of paperwork which absorbs most of their spare moments. But it's an important part of the leadership code, he said.

Continuing, Rev. Vogel said "taking the lead yourself is not always easy either. But you can't sit back and let others do the work." He described Teddy Roosevelt, rough-riding president who led a military campaign in San Juan, as an example. "An example should be set in all areas, not just in technical skills," Rev. Vogel continued.

He described his early career as a meatcutter to illustrate another point of his suggested code —to trust assistants.

Asserting that the "light of leadership" should be shared with others, Rev. Vogel said "sometimes we like to think somebody is on top in our society — labor, medicine, the church or business —but we can't have that. We have to have leaders willing to share the light of leadership."

Rev. Vogel was introduced by E. R. Chandler who acted as program chairman for Robert Miller.

Sidney C. Porter Jr., president, called for support in the Nov. 6 general election of two school levies totaling 5 mills.

A 3-mill renewal levy is asked for operating expenses. It has been in effect for several years. The Board of Education is also seeking a new 2-mill levy to increase salaries of employes, chiefly teachers.

Porter explained passage of the renewal levy is needed to enable the schools to continue operating with sufficient funds, while the 2-mill levy would help strengthen East Liverpool's position in the market for professional teachers.

Fact sheets on the school's levy campaign were distributed.

County Doctors Hear Guest Team

LISBON — A combined surgical-medical team from St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Youngstown featured the program for the Columbiana County Medical Society Tuesday at Lisbon.

Dr. Edmond Massullo and Dr. Angelo Riberri, surgical members of the team, described the latest techniques in artery grafts and showed a color movie on the repair of heart defects.

Medical members Dr. Leonard Caccamo and Dr. Elias Saadi, showed a film on a technique whereby physicians are able to visualize by X-ray various heart chambers and valves and the blood circulation.

Announcement was made that the society has endorsed the Columbiana County Mental Health League, which is affiliated with the state and national organizations.

About 30 doctors attended.

Palestine Man Gets Year In Morals Case

LISBON — An East Palestine area man was sentenced Tuesday to a year in the County Jail after he pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor at a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

Charles Biser, 27, of R. D. 1 pleaded guilty in the delinquency of a 15-year-old Negley R. D. 1 girl.

Judge Tobin advised Prosecutor G. William Brokaw to ask the January Grand Jury for an indictment of statutory rape.

There are 333 places in the United States with 50,000 or more inhabitants, according to the 1960 census.

McKinley PTA Backs Levy For School Use At Wellsville

The McKinley Parent - Teacher Association of Wellsville endorsed the 5-mill school levy on the November ballot when it met Monday night.

Supt. Lowell B. Myers spoke on the levy, telling of the cost of operating the school system, how the money will be used, the need for a guidance counselor and school improvements and improved salaries.

Earl A. Bake, president of the Board of Education, and Raymond Rolley, clerk, gave remarks about the need for the levy, comparing the local schools to those in the county.

The Rev. Kenneth Jackson, pastor of the Full Gospel Assembly, gave devotions and sang "Ships Ahoy," accompanied by his wife. Mrs. Edna McIntosh, president, presided. Vacancies among the officers were filled as follows: Mrs. Esther Corbisello, treasurer; Dale McIntosh, second vice president, and Mrs. Alice Groves, social chairman.

Homeroom mothers appointed are: Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill, Mrs. Judy Craven and Mrs. Bessie Smothers, first grade; Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. Dan Morrow and Mrs. Elsie Wilson, second; Mrs. John Val Tilburg, Mrs. Corbisello and Mrs. Robert Arnold, third.

Plans were made for a school Halloween party the afternoon of Oct. 31 and orders are being taken for candy-filled Christmas trees and chimneys. Mrs. Hazel Fraser's first grade won the attendance count. Refreshments were served by the first grade homeroom mothers. Next meeting is Nov. 19.

Court Dismisses Morals Charges Facing City Man

After a brief hearing, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed for lack of evidence adultery charges against Burl Quinn, 311 College St., filed by his wife, Mrs. Betty Quinn, 1155 Harker Ave.

Mrs. Quinn's affidavit alleged that her husband, "a married person, cohabited in a state of adultery with Laverna May Krafft" on Oct. 1. Quinn pleaded not guilty Monday and the hearing was continued until today. He was represented by Atty. George A. Aronson.

Before the hearing began, Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark moved for dismissal, asserting that he previously told Mrs. Quinn she apparently did not have evidence to prove her charges. Mrs. Quinn said she could furnish a witness, he related. But the witness, after being subpoenaed, said "she did not know anything about the case" and sent a physician's certificate asking to be excused, the solicitor said.

After Mrs. Quinn testified briefly, the judge dismissed the case. He told her the evidence would not sustain her charge under state law. Mrs. Quinn, married and the mother of six, testified her husband left home Aug. 1.

Deputies Investigate Road Grader Shooting

LISBON — Damaging of a County Highway Department road grader parked near North Georgetown by someone using a shotgun was being investigated today by sheriff's deputies.

County Engineer Charles Snyder said some $300 damage was caused to the radiator, tires and windows of the grader over the weekend. Shotgun shells were found nearby.

Parents To Buy 70 Uniforms For Wells High Band

Plans to purchase new Wells High School band summer uniforms and two instruments were approved by the Newell Band Parents Tuesday night in the American Legion home.

The group will outfit 70 musicians in new summer uniforms, with the exception of white shirts which are to be purchased by parents. The uniforms will be purchased in March in time for the annual spring concert, and will also be worn during spring and summer activities.

A new bass drum and clarinet will also be purchased for the band, in addition to music stands for a newly-organized dance band group.

Mrs. Carrie Baker was named to set the date and obtain quarters for a rummage sale.

John Larry Clark, band director, spoke briefly. Mrs. Mae Hupp, president, presided.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Beth Ingram and Mrs. Beth Haddock. The group will meet Nov. 20.

Endorses Rhodes

CLEVELAND (AP) — "A man who can get things done," is the way Ohio's largest daily newspaper, the Cleveland Press, described James A. Rhodes in endorsing him for governor of Ohio. The Press, a Scripps - Howard newspaper, endorsed the state auditor, a Republican, in an editorial Tuesday.

County Unit To Elect

LISBON — Officers and directors will be elected by the Columbiana County Health and Safety Council Tuesday, Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. in the County Extension offices. A program will be announced later for this annual meeting, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Polen-Pennell Nuptial Held In Lisbon Church

LISBON — In the sanctuary of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ, Miss Nancy Lee Pennell and Clyde Polen were united in marriage Friday evening at 6:45. The Rev. William V. Ring, minister, officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pennell of R. D. 1, and Polen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of Salineville.

The bride was attired in a beige wool tweed dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Richard Henthorne of Lisbon, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. Her dress was of blue silk taffeta with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Charles Tepan of Salineville served as best man.

A reception followed for the immediate families at the Fellowship Hall.

The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, white tapers on either side, entwined by white mums.

Mrs. Margaret DeRhodes of Canton, and Mrs. James Burgham of Lisbon, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Mildred Rohn of Canton served.

The bride is a graduate of David Anderson High School and is attending beauticians' school at Canton.

The bridegroom attended Salineville High School and is employed at the Kol-Cast Co. of Minerva.

Following a wedding trip to Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Polen will reside at a trailer court near Salem.

Will there be a '63 model of Electricity?

Over the years, we've spent millions to improve the way we produce and deliver electricity. But we haven't changed our product one particle. Our '63 model will be exactly the same as our '35 model (or any other year)!

Why did we spend the millions? For a very sound reason. Through more efficient methods we have been able to keep the price low. While almost all other items have gone up and up, the price you pay per unit of electricity is lower today than in 1935!*

Your increased use (5½ times as much on the average) has helped, too.

Thanks to Ohio's historically favorable business climate, the electric companies were able to raise the millions needed to make these improvements. As a result: In Ohio you now pay less for electricity than people in 31* other states!

Rescue Mission Auxiliary Names Nominating Group

A nominating committee was named at the meeting of the auxiliary of the Community Rescue Mission Monday night.

Mrs. Grace Lawrence, president, appointed Mrs. Eva McBride, Mrs. Marian Stanway and Mrs. Ethel Richman. Mrs. Mildred Betteridge read the minutes and correspondence.

Mrs. Charles Calhoun, treasurer, read the financial report and announced $10 has been contributed to the sign fund project in memoriam to Clarence Hanna. She also reported on the recent dinner of the board.

A Thanksgiving dinner will be held Nov. 17 for the Bible Club. Contributions of food are needed, along with help.

Mrs. Lawrence explained the projects of the mission and the need of sheets, socks and underwear. She said the meetings are open to the public. She closed with a poem "Beyond Death."

Churches represented were Trinity, Longs Run, Riverside and First and Second United Presbyterian and the First Methodists, both of East Liverpool and Newell

Worship was conducted by women of the Second United church with Mrs. Eva McBride, program chairman. Mrs. Maxine Clark read Ps. 100 and a poem, "Others."

Group hymns were "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" and "Rescue the Perishing." Mrs. Jean Russell was accompanist.

Mrs. McBride gave comments on Luke 10:25-29. Mrs. Beatrice Peters offered prayer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Betty Bright and members of the Riverside church of Wellsville.

Next meeting is Nov. 19. The Friendship Class of Pleasant Heights, with Mrs. Wilma Beaver, chairman, will arrange the program and lunch.

AGS Gem-Wise Jewelry fashions, facts, fictions

Did you know that more weddings occur in the second six months of the year than in the earlier spring and summer periods? While June is still popular, August and September are fast assuming major importance as a time for young couples to say their marriage vows.

Certainly, one of the most accepted features of every ceremony is the use of a wedding ring. In the earliest days, the betrothal ring did double-duty as the ring used in the final ritual. Through the ages, it assumed many forms and shapes. The earliest were of plain iron, no doubt to symbolize the "iron-bound" eternity of love. The Romans sometimes supplied their brides with a second ring of gold for "dress."

The first use of a diamond in a betrothal ring goes back to Mary of Burgundy who sent a valuable diamond ring to the Duke of Austria in 1477 signifying her consent to the proposed marriage.

Two rings have been in use only since the 19th Century — the engagement ring marking the promise, and the wedding band the fulfillment of marriage. Long ago, Thomas Fuller added the thought "as your wedding ring wears, you'll wear off your cares."

Since your engagement and wedding rings are going to be worn throughout your married life, their quality should be of the finest. If you have budget problems, as most young couples do, we'll be glad to show you how slight variations in diamond color and clarity will not harm the appearance of your stone, but will reduce price.

However, in our store, we insist that all of our diamonds have fine cutting, since this is the one factor that can most seriously reduce the sparkling beauty of your diamond. Regardless of the size of the stone you select, don't forget that in later years you may add other diamonds to your original mounting.

drawing boards of an engineering firm. The plans are to be complete by July 1963. Total cost of the segment is estimated at $22,500,000.

The Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia is preparing plans for three miles of the new road between State Route 267 at Apples Corners and State Route 170, where the second southern segment ends. Plans are to be finished by next July. The overall construction cost is estimated at $5,500,000.

On the northern end of the new road, construction is under way on a 5.9-mile section running from State Route 531, just east of Ashtabula, to the Ashtabula River Bridge. It is scheduled to be ready for traffic next year. The cost is set at $6,817,210.

Another 4.1-mile segment near Ashtabula was completed last year. Highway Department officials said they expect to contract with an engineering firm soon to prepare plans for a 19-mile stretch in the Ashtabula area. The cost would be $15,427,000.

Plans are being prepared for several other segments in Ashtabula, Trumbull and Mahoning Counties.

A 1,270 - mile traverse near the South Pole in 1962-63 will gather ice-thickness data to help determine whether the continent's vast ice blanket is advancing or retreating.

THE HIGH SCHOOL band, directed by Vincent L. Maola, furnished several selections. The invocation was by John Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ and president of the East Liverpool Minsterial Association. Fr. John P. Cunningham, an assistant pastor at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, pronounced the benediction.

A lowboy trailer formed the platform for the dedicatory program. Souvenir programs and literature on the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway were distributed to the guests.

More than 60 were scheduled to attend the hotel luncheon, where McKenna was to discuss informally the plans for future construction of the lake-river road in this area. Alvin T. Babb, Chamber president, was to preside.

'Music' Theme Of Meeting Of Chester Women's Club

"Music" was the theme of a meeting of the Chester Women's Club Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Ingram of Columbia Dr.

Thomas Schneidmiller sang a group of solos, accompanied by Mrs. Dale Finley, program chairman. The selections included "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "Just for Today," "I'll Walk With God" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Mrs. C. H. Rank was in charge of the devotion theme.

A contribution of $5 was authorized for the Child Counseling Center of East Liverpool. Mrs. William Werkheiser reported on the Oct. 6 convention of Federated Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Walter Jordan, president, appointed Mrs. Lloyd Dittmer as historian, Mrs. Howard Long as chairman for collecting stamps for veterans hospitals, and Mrs. Finley for collection of used spectacles in an eye-saving project.

Mrs. Ray Huff reported on the West Virginia Centennial queen contest, and said a Hancock County representative will be selected Nov. 17 at Weirton.

Mrs. Ingram reported on fruit cakes to be sold by the club. Messages and calls to invalids were reported by Mrs. D. C. Grewell.

Refreshments were served 30 by the hostess and Mrs. Herbert. Next meeting is Oct. 29 with Mrs. Clayton Hobbs of Laurel Heights.

Narrated Music Features Guest Night For Bible Club

Narration accompanied the musical program presented by Mrs. C. M. Mayberry and Miss Bernice Myler for the Guest Night observance of the Esther Bible Club Monday in the social rooms of the First Methodist Church. Some 128 attended, with members of the Bible Literary Club as guests.

The theme was "Music and the Bible" with Mrs. Mayberry narrator, Miss Myler accompanist, and the choir of the Newell Presbyterian Church providing background music. Mrs. Jack McDevitt is director.

Featured in "The Story of David" was Richard Fineman, 8, of Chester, who played the ram's horn. His father, Alvin Fineman, gave the history of the instrument.

Mrs. McDevitt sang "By the Waters of Babylon" and "He Shall Feed His Flock." She composed the selection, "In Remembrance Of Me," sung by the choir.

Other vocal solos were Mrs. Robert Carnahan, "The Song of Mary — Magnificat;" Alton West, "The Years of Ministry-Prayer," and George Vukas, "The Mockery —Art Thou the Christ."

Mrs. Robert Wotring provided the background setting for the program, which included the portrait of Christ flanked by palms. The altar table, covered with green maline, featured gold boxes covered with pictures of musical instruments, drawn by her husband. It was topped with a large scroll inscribed with Ps. 100.

Mrs. Andrew Myers Jr., president, extended the welcome. Mrs. L. B. Lemon, program chairman, gave the introduction.

Refreshments were served by Miss Margaret Baum, Mrs. James Crooks, Mrs. John R. Wilson, Mrs. Charles R. Thomas and Mrs. Wotring.

Next meeting for the Esther Bible Club is Nov. 19 at the church with Mrs. Charles R. Waggoner, Mrs. William Edgell and Mrs. John Vervin hostesses.

The Bible Literary Club will meet Nov. 21 also at the church. Mrs. C. R. Boyce, Mrs. Gail Richmond, Mrs. Lawrence Black and Mrs. W. A. Betz have the program. Mrs. Jack Mossman, Mrs. Norman Heath and Mrs. Harold Gallimore are hostesses.

audience that accounts of the meeting would be carried in the newspapers and his views would be made public. Stroble also said he opposed putting any more taxes on the people, pointing out Wellsville is already in a bad economic situation. He said this would "chase firms like Sterling China Co. out of town."

Rev. Sanko suggested he let Sterling officials give their own views and pointed out that the workers at Sterling could express their views at the polls.

Stroble later said he would vote yes to the motion if his views were made public. "It will be interesting to see if they are," he said.

Councilman Donald Miller was absent. Also voting in favor were Councilmen Robert Taggart, Kay Drago, Dwight Maclean and Frank DeLonzo.

During the discussion, it was pointed out the issue will appear on the ballot at a tax rate of 1.9 mills to retire the total amount. The money received from the federal government will cut down the amount actually to be placed on the tax duplicate and collected. This is estimated to be nine-tenths of a mill.

Deaths and Funerals

Death Claims Widow At 80

Mrs. Maude B. Charlton of 2nd St., Newell, widow of James M. Charlton, died Tuesday at 4:10 p. m. at City Hospital. She was 80 and had been ill two months and in the hospital a day.

Mrs. Charlton was born Nov. 10, 1881, in Reedsville, Ohio, to Sylvester Chaney and Rebecca Brewer Chaney, and had resided in the community for 63 years. She was a member of the Newell Methodist Church.

Her only survivor is a son, William R. Charlton of Newell. Her husband died June 7, 1956.

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals by the Rev. Ralph Hedrick. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery, East Liverpool.

Friends may call Thursday at the funeral home.

Albert Brown

Albert B. Brown, 84, of Hamilton, father of Mrs. Gerald (Irene) Hughey of East Liverpool, died Tuesday evening at Hughes Hospital there after an illness of several days.

He was born in Hamilton Nov. 12, 1877, to Jerome Brown and Mary Lingler Brown, and was employed last in the engineering department of the city of Hamilton, retiring in 1952.

Other survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mae Brown at home; four sons, two other daughters, two brothers, a sister, 18 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 10 a. m. at the Colligan Funeral Home in Hamilton with burial at the Greenwood Cemetery there.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret Smith

Services for Mrs. Margaret N. Smith of New Waterford, formerly of Midland, will be held tonight at 9 at the Cannon Funeral Home at Midland by Dr. Elmer L. Parks, pastor of the Ingomar (Pa.) Community Methodist Church.

Mrs. Smith died Monday in Parma Community Hospital after a long illness.

Friends may call this afternoon and evening at the Midland funeral home.

Additional services will be conducted Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the Belleville (W.Va.) Methodist Church. Burial will be in Anderson Cemetery at Belleville.

Friends may call Thursday at the residence of a son, Wardie C. Smith, of Belleville.

Miss Nellie Booth

Miss Nellie M. Booth, 222 W. Center Ln., a waredresser at the Homer Laughlin China Co., was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital Tuesday at 7:40 p.m. after she was stricken ill earlier at her home.

Miss Booth was born in East Liverpool to Samuel Booth and Anna Hughes Booth. She was a member of the IBOP and attended the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Her only survivor is a nephew, Robert L. Payne, with whom she resided.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Gene Toot, associate minister. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening.

Harry Cushing

EAST PALESTINE — Harry G. Cushing, 70, of Youngstown, a former resident here, and a World War I veteran, died Tuesday at 12:50 p. m. at the Youngstown North Side Hospital after a year's illness.

Mr. Cushing was born Aug. 12, 1892, in Claysville, Pa., to William Cushing and Catherine Murphy Cushing. He was credit manager of the G. M. McKelvey Co. in Youngstown for 32 years before retiring five years ago. He was a graduate of Lancaster (Pa.) College.

He was a member of the Claysville Presbyteran Church, and the Western Star Masonic Lodge and the American Legion Post, both of Youngstown, the Aut Mori Grotto of the Al Koran Shrine of Cleveland, and the Youngstown Downtown Kiwanis Club.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Kalletta Overlander Cushing at home; a son, Dr. Lawrence D. Cushing, and a daughter, Mrs. Chris Jaeger, both of Youngstown; a brother, Thomas Cushing of Bolivar; five sisters, Mrs. Bernice Bane, Miss Bess Cushing and Miss Kathryn Cushing, all of Claysville, and Mrs. Marjorie Grimes and Mrs. Marie Rogers, both of Massillon, and five grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the Davis - Welker Funeral Home, 4996 Market St., Youngstown, by the Rev. Sam G. Warr. Burial will be in Lake Park, Youngstown.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Burning Ban Lifted

The ban against burning in Wellsville has been lifted until Oct. 31 to allow residents to dispose of leaves and garden and yard refuse, Mayor William Daugherty announced today. He said residents should exercise extreme care in burning leaves, making sure the fire does not get out of control. Residents also were cautioned against burning leaves on blacktop streets as the heat damages the asphalt. Residents still will be prohibited from burning garbage.

PTA Advised Of Levy Need

The new 5-mill school levy to be submitted to Wellsville voters Nov. 6 was discussed by Supt. Lowell B. Myers at the meeting of the Garfield Parent - Teacher Association Monday night.

He told of its cost to the taxpayer and how the revenue would be spent. He stressed the need for a better salary schedule for teachers.

Raymond Rolley, clerk of the Board of Education, spoke on how the money is spent and Earl Bake, president, explained the tax valuation and cost per pupil. William Ferrall, a board member, spoke briefly. A question-and-answer period followed. The group endorsed the levy and voted $20 toward expenses of its promotion.

Mrs. Marjorie Kinzel, president, conducted business and reports were given by the membership and ways and means committees.

The attendance banner was won by the second and third grades taught by Miss JoAnn VanDyke. Lunch was served by first grade homeroom mothers, Mrs. Ruth Barlow, Mrs. Millie Long, Mrs. Charlene Rogers and Mrs. Mary Haddox.

The Rev. William Hewitt of the Central Methodist Church conducted devotions. Mrs. Betty Figley, program chairman, introduced Myers.

Storm Ella Delays U.S Moon Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The gusty winds of tropical storm Ella have forced a four-week postponement of the attempt to launch the Ranger 5 spacecraft to the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration had planned to launch the spacecraft today, but called off the effort Tuesday night when Weather Bureau reports indicated there was a good chance the storm would cause unfavorable weather at Cape Canaveral the next several days.

Preparations were made to remove Ranger 5 and its Atlas-Agena B rocket from the launch pad and move them to the safety of a hangar.

The space agency had only a four-day period ending Friday when the moon was in a favorable position for the Ranger 5 launch. The next optimum period begins about Nov. 13.

Attempted Arson Case Checked At Garfield School

The police and fire departments made an investigation Tuesday afternoon into an attempted arson case at Garfield School in which a bungling effort had been made Monday night or early yesterday to set fire to a teacher's desk and a pupil's desk.

The investigation was made by Police Capt. Robert Pyle, Patrolman Orin C. Smith and Asst. Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne, who interrogated several youngsters. The case still is under investigation, Capt. Pyle said.

School authorities notified the two departments that two burned packages of safety matches were found atop a magazine on a teacher's desk. Some papers on the desk were burned, but there was no real damage, Capt. Pyle said.

A small fire also had been set in a nearby pupil's desk, also with safety matches, he said. But the intruder dropped the lid on the desk after setting the fire, which smothered the flames. Some books in the desk were seared. Another package of matches was found underneath a door leading into the classroom.

There was no sign of forcible entry of the building, Capt. Pyle said. The attempted fire - setting was discovered yesterday morn- about noon.

4 American Copters Fire On Viet Reds

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Four U.S. Army escort helicopters poured rocket and machinegun fire into a concentration of Communist guerrillas Tuesday, apparently with deadly effect.

The helicopters, recently sent from the United States, are designed to help neutralize the increasing Viet Cong guerrilla ground fire that has downed at least two planes in two days with the loss of three Americans.

The four heavily armed HU1 helicopters were accompanying lightly armed helicopters bringing out a battalion of Vietnamese soldiers 55 miles northwest of Saigon.

The Vietnamese had been landed to protect a U.S. helicopter forced down by mechanical trouble. It was necessary to destroy the helicopter, and lurking Viet Cong opened fire as the helicopters began lifting out the Vietnamese.

The late-model helicopters swooped into action, their 16 powerful rockets and two .30 caliber machineguns blazing.

Reports said the helicopter fire hit a column of about 75 guerrillas.

Farther north, a civilian spotter plane crashed Tuesday in the central highlands where increasing guerrilla ground fire had shot down two other planes.

Officials were tight-lipped about the nature of the plane or the identification of the pilot injured in the crash.

The craft was one of a fleet of unmarked planes performing intelligence work in South Viet Nam. They include a variety of light planes and L28s, DC4s and DC6s.

Sevres, Lowestoft and Wedgewood all are kinds of chinaware.

Post Fete Set For Children

Plans for sponsoring a children's Halloween party were outlined at a meeting of American Legion Post 374 Tuesday night in the East End home.

Kenneth Brooks, second vice commander, reported the party will be Oct. 27 at 6 p. m. in the post home. There will be entertainment and refreshments for the youngsters, with a dance to follow for adults. The Headliners will provide music.

Dances are also planned at the post each Saturday this weekend through Dec. 22.

James Cregar, commander, presided. He presented a report on the national American Legion convention held four days in Las Vegas.

John Long, first vice commander, reported the membership enrollment is 200.

Post 374 will host the County Bowling League Nov. 4. Rodney Stull, chairman, said there are 12 men's teams and four women's teams in the league. Bowling Nov. 4 will be at the Tri-State and Friendly Bowling Lanes.

Louis Provost, chaplain, reported on a meeting of County Council held Oct. 12 in Salineville.

Fifty attended. Next meeting is Monday at 8 p. m.

Yanks Hang Up 20th Series Flag As Giants Bow, 1-0

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The New York Yankees, famed for their slugging heroics from the days of Babe Ruth to Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Co., won the 1962 World Series on pitching—and pitching alone.

While the hitters, for the most part, played dead, the pitchers—all who toiled in the seven-game series with the San Francisco Giants—were magnificent.

So were those of the Giants, who put up a valiant struggle, grudgingly going down to defeat but not until they had the potential tying run on third and the winning run on second with two out in the ninth inning of the seventh game.

The most magnificent pitcher of all was Ralph Terry, who had been living under a cloud ever since he became the "goat" of the 1960 World Series when he threw a series winning home run to Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski in the ninth inning of the final game.

Terry, 26, started three games.

Terry Masterful In 4-Hit Effort; Pitching Took Yankees To Title

He pitched strongly in the second, losing 2-0. He pitched as well in the fifth game, winning 5-3. Tuesday, the right-hander was superb, limiting the Giants to four hits and winning 1-0. Jack Sanford, Terry's mound opponent in all three games, was the loser.

"This has to be the best game Terry has ever pitched," said Yankee manager Ralph Houk. "I have never seen him with better control. He didn't walk a single batter and he had three balls on only one hitter. I don't think he made more than three or four bad pitches all day."

Terry, relying mainly on a fast ball and slider, plus nearly perfect control, easily disposed of the first 17 batters he faced. Memories of Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series for the Yankees must have been in the minds of the 43,948 Candlestick Park spectators.

Terry thought of it, too, but his dream was shattered when Sanford lined a single to right center with two out in the sixth inning.

The Yankees, meanwhile, had taken a 1-0 lead although it took a double play to bring the run home in the fifth inning. Singles by Bill Skowron and Clete Boyer put runners on first and third with none out. Sanford, pitching carefully to Terry, walked the pitcher on four balls, filling the bases.

Sanford almost pitched himself out of the jam. He induced Tony Kubek to bounce into a doubleplay as Skowron crossed the plate, and he retired Bobby Richardson on a foul popup to Orlando Cepeda.

Terry made the run stand up, never permitting the Giants to put two men on base in any inning until the ninth. Pinch hitter Matty Alou beat out a drag bunt, and two outs later Willie Mays lined a double to the right field corner.

Quick fielding by Roger Maris and a fine relay from Maris to Richardson to the plate held Alou on third. Willie McCovey's line drive to Richardson ended the game and gave Terry the victory.

The Yankees had a team batting average of 1.99 and hit only three home runs. The giants batted .226 with five home runs.

It was the Yankees' 20th championship in 27 World Series since they won their first pennant in 1921. It also marked their fifth World Series triumph over the Giants, who haven't beaten them since 1922.

EL-Big Red Renew Grid Series Friday

Potters Last Played Rival In '55 Season

The East Liverpool Potters may have picked a bad year to renew gridiron relations with Steubenville Big Red. The two will play Friday night at Steubenville.

It has been seven years since these Ohio Valley rivals have met in football and this season finds Ray Hoyman's powerful Jefferson County squad ranked with the best in the state and owning one of the finest halfbacks who ever stepped on a gridiron.

The Big Red-Potter series was discontinued in 1955, with East Liverpool scoring victories in the last two games.

THE GREAT 1955 team, coached by Bob Gibson, which went undefeated and set an all - time ELHS offensive record in doing it, knocked over Steubenville by a whopping 46-6 margin.

In 1954, as Gibson was building for his crack squad, the Potters eked out a 14-13 win. The Potters lost the 1953 game, but the unbeaten team of 1952, which included the likes of Ed Oliver, Clair Williams, everybody's All - Ohio Ernie Bell and Bob McCoy, spilled Big Red, 28-13.

THE OVERALL series of 21 games shows East Liverpool three behind, winning eight while losing 11. Two other games ended in a tie.

Big Red has had an easy time of it so far walking over five of its six opponents. Steubenville defeated Massillon in its narrowest victory to date, 14-8.

Campbell Memorial, Cleveland Glenville, Weirton, Pittsburgh Schenley and Pittsburgh North Catholic have fallen in that order.

THIS WEEK Steubenville was ranked seventh in the Associated Press poll. The week before the Stubbers were tied for fifth.

Harry Wilson, a fine break-away runner, is the main threat. Wilson was an all-stater as a junior and is heading for a repeat performance this season. He has scored 14 touchdowns so far and picked up 254 yards on his own in Steubenville's 46-0 trouncing of Pittsburgh North Catholic last Friday. The speedster picked up the 254 total in two quarters. He sat out the second half when the reserves took over.

Wilson has a running mate in Ray Terry, who is almost his match.

Detroit Gets Chance For '68 Olympics

CHICAGO (AP) — The city of Detroit will get another opportunity to host Olympic competition when it makes a bid for the 1968 summer Games as the United States representative.

Detroit and Lake Placid, N.Y., were selected by the U.S. Olympic Committee Tuesday to bid for the 1968 summer and winter Games, respectively, at the International Olympic Committee meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, Oct. 13, 1963.

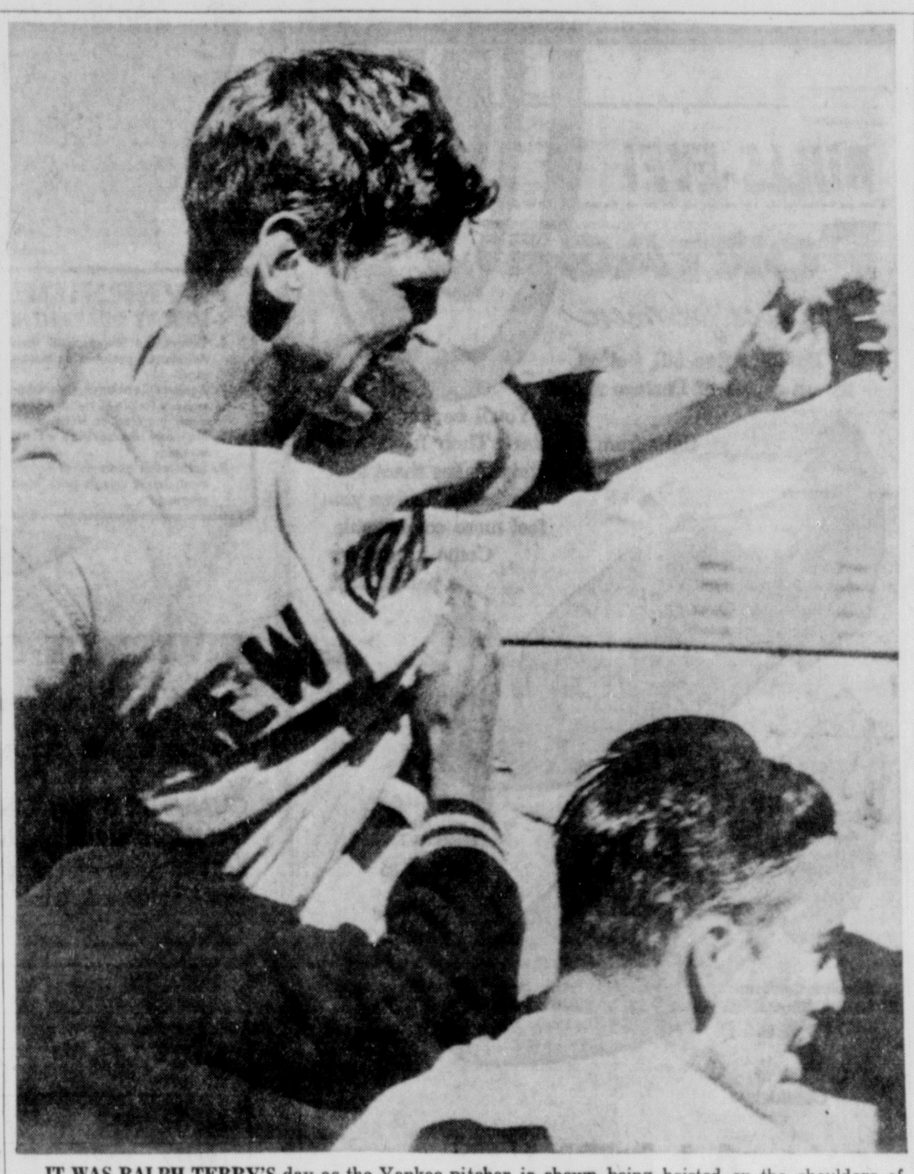

It will be Detroit's fourth effort to get the Games. U.S. officials expressed doubt that the Motor City would be successful. Lake Placid, scene of the 1932 winter Games, had little hopes of getting the 1968 bid since the United States had the 1960 winter Games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Detroit was selected over Los Angeles, scene of the 1932 Games, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Portland. Lake Placid beat out Salt Lake City.

Detroit was chosen by the 37-man board of directors "after a very lengthy, wearing discussion," said K. L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. committee.

At Nairobi, international competition for the Games is expected from Lausanne, Vienna, Mexico City and Buenos Aires.

The Goat In 1960, Terry Conquering Hero Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It's a long way to the top of the baseball world.

Ralph Terry, the New York Yankees' right-hander, reached the high point of the road Tuesday in Candlestick Park as a line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants rocketed into the glove of Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson for the final out in the seventh game of the 1962 World Series.

A foot either way, and . . . but it was not a foot either way, and the Yankees won the game 1-0, and the World Series 4 games to 3.

"He hit a good pitch good," Terry said. "The rest was in somebody else's hands.

"I was lucky."

As he sat in the Yankees' dressing room, he said, "What an ending. What a perfect ending, 1-0. That's how close the two teams were in every respect in this Series."

Then he thought a bit, and added in his soft voice:

"This is a personal triumph. It wipes away two years of worry, two years of doubt."

In 1960, he compiled a 10-8 record, but wound up with a "goat" label when Bill Mazeroski's homer beat the Yankees in the Series.

Working in relief, Terry threw two pitches in the bottom of the ninth inning of the seventh game of that series, and Mazeroski hit the second one for a home run that won for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Terry snapped back from that terrible moment, and went on to win 23 games, high in the league, for the Yankees this season.

But he never forgot it. They wouldn't let him.

"I got an anonymous letter from Pittsburgh only this morning," he said, "reminding me of Mazeroski, and saying I would throw another ball like that today.

"And I could hear people yelling at me in the stands, especially late in the game, about Mazeroski."

Another ninth inning, another seventh game, and Matty Alou dragged a bunt for a single. Terry got Felipe Alou and Chuck Hiller on strike-outs. Then Willie Mays doubled.

Up came McCovey.

"I told (manager Ralph) Houk I'd rather pitch to McCovey than walk him and pitch to (Orlando) Cepeda," Terry said.

"The first pitch was a curve. He hit it foul. Then I tried to jam him (pitch in close to the hands). He hit a good pitch good."

OSU Picked Over Wildcats; Pitt Is Underdog To UCLA

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If you take time to look at Purdue's efforts this fall, how can anyone have the courage to predict college football results? The Boilermakers tied mighty Washington, drubbed Notre Dame and then lost to Miami of Ohio!!!

But here goes another orbit with the crystal ball. Last week's visit to Apset Gulch resulted in 12 incorrect guesses and 38 correct ones. That is a .760 average and reduced the seasonal average to .799 on figures of 154-39.

This week's picks:

Texas over Arkansas: Each team has everything but Texas also has the advantage of playing on its home field. If the Longhorns win by more than a field goal you are entitled to act surprised.

Alabama over Tennessee: That Alabama line has yielded only 18.8 yards a game against each of the Crimson Tide's four opponents.

Southern California over California: The Golden Bears won't be able to stop Ben Wilson, the Trojan fullback.

Louisiana State over Kentucky: There just aren't enough Kentuckians to trap all the Bayou Bengals.

Mississippi over Tulane: It will be a long, dreary season for the New Orleans Greenies.

Ohio State over Northwestern: Coach Woody Hayes doesn't like the forward pass at any time, especially when it is used by the opposition. He will devise some way to stop the sensational throwing of Northwestern's prize sophomore, Tom Myers.

Wisconsin over Iowa: Wisconsin has come up with a batch of backs to augment the stellar play of Pat Richter at end. Iowa's Matt Szykowny still not up to par.

Michigan State over Notre Dame: Too much Spartan speed for the Irish, who had to rebuild a backfield since the start of practice on Sept. 1.

UCLA over Pittsburgh: The Bruins have their new splitback T formation in good working order and Kermit Alexander is healthy.

Penn State over Syracuse: The Penn Staters have been reminded daily that they bowed to underdog Army last Saturday. That bodes ill for the Syracuse Orangemen.

Homecomings, Rivalries Set Grid Scene

Beavers Seek Revenge; Wellsville Hit Hard By Injuries

A fairly heavy schedule finds several old rivalries on tap Friday, with three schools to observe Homecoming celebrations this weekend on the local football scene.

With the season just past the half-way point, the area now boasts only one unbeaten team—Columbiana High's Clippers—who have been cutting quite a figure in the Tri-County League behind the bruising runs of Dale Murphy.

The Clips are 5-0 and invade Sebring Friday night a heavy favorite. But the big game is two weeks away, with Louisville, that may determine the league championship.

A CHANCE to gain revenge awaits Beaver Local Friday night. The Beavers invade Carrollton smarting from a 22-20 defeat to Northwestern that may have ruined an unbeaten season.

Coach Jack O'Rourke's Beavers will probably visit Carrollton remembering last year's game in which Carrollton won, 14-8, inflicting the only defeat that year. But the Beavers tied two games to finish 7-1-2.

If any team in the area deserves a little encouragement this week, it's Wellsville High's Tigers.

—:—

WELLSVILLE (1-5) swings against Salem (4-2) minus three backfield regulars and a lineman, all shelved by injuries. And Coach Ken Woods reports several other squadmen are ailing.

Adding further to Wellsville's woes is the fact that they draw a team that has been their toughest opponent to whip across the years.

Twenty years have passed since Wellsville came up with a victory over Salem. That was in the 1942 season, when the Tigers whipped the Quakers, 27-0. Since then, Salem has won 18 straight games and is a favorite to record another Friday night.

—:—

RETURNING to "haunt" Wellsville is Quarterback Bill Beery who ran the opening kickoff 89 yards and intercepted a pass later in the game to spark Salem to a 16-8 verdict last year.

Chester High's Panthers observe Homecoming in meeting Crestview. Each squad has split six games but Crestview has enjoyed some late foot, winning three in a row.

Also coming on strong is Midland, which has bowled over Wellsville, Monaca and Rochester to pull even at 3-3 after a disasterous start. The Leopards entertain Hopewell Friday in another Homecoming event.

Also in action Friday are East Palestine, entertaining Minerva; Leetonia, hosting Poland; once - beaten Lisbon at Louisville, and Columbiana at Sebring.

The Lisbon-Louisville game appears the feature in Tri-County League action, with Lisbon fighting for a share of the laurels behind leading scorer Dave Rose and quarterback Larry McPherson.

ANOTHER school observing Homecoming is once-beaten Stanton Local, which tackles Newell (1-5) Saturday afternoon at 2 (DST) in Irondale.

Coach Don McBride's youngsters appear on the move toward another highly - successful campaign. Last week, the Red Raiders got even with rival Springfield by 22-0 for one of the first victories in the series. The Red Raiders were 8-1 last year.

In two other Saturday games, Canfield visits United and Conotton Valley travels to Salineville.

Lisbon's Dave Rose scored a touchdown and a conversion to maintain his lead in the district's individual scoring race last week.

But pressing the leader is Columbiana's Dale Murphy, who broke loose for four touchdowns to move into second place with 58 points, only 10 behind Rose.

Dark Looking Ahead To '63 Season, Doesn't See Any Reason For Changes

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — One day after the World Series ended and Manager Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants already is looking ahead to 1963.

"I'm as proud as I can be of the Giants, they played great all year," the skipper declared of his crew that wasn't beaten until the final out in the ninth inning of the seventh World Series game. "They played great.

"If a ball club is good enough to win the pennant, I don't see need for any major changes."

Alvin also wouldn't use any different strategy if he had Tuesday's 1-0 game to replay, explaining, "You'd go crazy if you second guess yourself in baseball."

Yet a matter of a couple feet in two instances meant the difference between victory and defeat in the finale.

In the seventh inning, the Yankees' Tom Tresh just grabbed a Willie Mays liner to left ticketed for a double before Willie McCovey slammed a triple to center. And in the ninth with runners on second and third and two out, McCovey's line drive went right at second baseman Bobby Richardson.

"That's as hard a line drive as a guy can hit," Dark commented in the quiet Giant clubhouse. "You can't hit one harder than that."

McCovey himself, sitting with his chin in his hands, added, "I hit it good but right at him."

The Giants were in agreement that Matty Alou could not have scored in the ninth on Willie Mays' double down the right field line.

"In my opinion, he couldn't have made it," said third base coach Whitey Lockman. "If (Roger) Maris juggled the ball I would have sent in the runner."

Alou, who reached first on a bunt as a pinch hitter, also said, "I think I would have been out." He died at third with Mays on second.

As the "ifs" were recounted, there was the bunt by Chuck Hiller in the ninth that rolled foul. If it had stayed fair, the Giants would have had Matty Alou on second when Mays doubled. Or if losing pitcher Jack Sanford hadn't walked opposing pitcher Ralph Terry in the fifth, the Yankees might not have had their run. Sanford had struck out Terry six of the seven times he faced him this series, but threw four straight balls this time.

The 24-game winner who had blanked the Yankees in the second series game and been a tremendous competitor all year was unhappiest of the Giants. Asked if he missed with his fast ball to Terry, he snapped, "Certainly that was it. Why do you think I walked him?"

Figuring Series

Except for the important games won column, the Giants outdid the Yanks in most categories. They batted a collective .226 to the Yanks' .199. Other departments: Runs—Giants 21, Yanks 20; Doubles—Giants 10, Yanks 6; Triples—Giants 2, Yanks 1; Homers—Giants 5, Yanks 3.

—:—

Tuesday was only the third time this year that the Giants were shut out in Candlestick Park. Bob Gibson of St. Louis blanked them 1-0 on May 17 and Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale of the Dodgers combined for a 2-0 shutout on July 8. San Francisco was whitewashed five times on the road.

—:—

Only three players among those who participated in all seven games batted .300 or higher. They were Jose Pagan of the Giants .368, Tom Tresh of the Yanks .321 and Cletis Boyer, also of the Yanks, .318.

—:—

Ernie Bowman, the Giants' utility infielder, finally got into a game his club lost. San Francisco had won 46 games in which Bowman had appeared in this year, including one in the series. Bowman replaced shortstop Pagan, who was pinch hit for by Ed Bailey in the eighth inning.

Warren Nips EL Runners

In a close race all the way, the East Liverpool High cross country team fell by a 26-29 margin to Warren Tuesday afternoon at Perkins Park in Warren.

Gary Bingham, led the winners to victory with a first place finish in a time of 10:40.

Bruce McCoy was the first Potter across the finish line coming in third. Dick Deem was fourth, Roger Linville fifth, Curt Battestelli, seventh and Sherman Phelps, tenth.

East Liverpool will take part in the St. Clairsville Invitational meet Saturday.

Fight Results

LONDON—Brian Curvis, 145¾, Wales, outpointed Guy Sumlin, 147, Mobile, Ala., 10; Bill Davis, 127½, England, stopped Gene Fosmire, 127½, Rockaway, N.J., 5.

HALIFAX, N.S.—Burke Emery, 165, London, Ont., outpointed Marty Pettiford, 177, Jersey City, N.J., 10; Les Sprague, 138½, Amherst, N.S., outpointed Jimmy Dorsey, 137½, New York, 10.

Hancock Towns To Be Visited By Rep. Arch Moore

Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. continues an intensive campaign in the Northern Panhandle Thursday with visits scheduled in four Hancock County communities.

The Republican candidate for 1st District congressman in the Nov. 6 general election, Rep. Moore spoke Monday night in Weirton, asking voters to "continue the two-party system."

The 39-year-old legislator has been West Virginia's only GOP member in either the House or Senate for the past four years.

Moore's schedule calls for brief visits in New Cumberland from 2:45 to 3:30 p. m., in Pughtown from 3:30 to 4:30, in Newell from 5:30 to 6:30, and in Chester at 8.

His opponent in the general election is Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey, 78, of Clarksburg, veteran Democrat. The two were pitted by the enlargement of the 1st District to include counties from the old 3rd District represented for years by Rep. Bailey.

Plans Are Pushed For Establishing Animal Refuge

Final replies are being awaited from a questionnaire to determine if there is sufficient interest to establish an East Liverpool Area Animal Refuge.

Letters were mailed 250 district residents several months ago asking suggestions as to the organization of such a refuge.

The organizing group includes Robert Croyle, former city dog catcher, Collin L. Neal, J. W. Sutphen and Jack L. Green.

The East Liverpool Area Animal Refuge is a non-profit organization which recently was granted a state charter. The charter specifies its "intention is to try to provide shelter, food and care and, to the greatest extent possible, placement in homes for neglected or unwanted animals".

Should enough interest be indicated, officers would be elected and policies discussed at a dinner meeting, the sponsors said.

Quartet To Leave For Competition

The Heathertones Quartet, members of the East Liverpool Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., will leave today for the 16th annual international competition at the Royal York Hotel at Toronto, Ont., Canada.

They are Mrs. Betty Pettibon, lead; Mrs. Lorida Harvey, tenor; Mrs. Bette Damaska, base, all of the Beaver Falls area, and Miss Norma Jones, baritone, of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Damaska is president of the chapter.

The group won the competition of Region 14 in the spring of 1960 at Atlantic City and placed fifth at the international convention that fall at Detroit. They did not enter the competition of 1961 at Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Ruth Rinehart, delegate, will attend the business sessions scheduled for the four-day event. Others planning to attend are Mrs. Jan Dietz, Mrs. Wilma Laughlin, Miss Marian Pratley, Miss Nancy McBrian and Mrs. Marge Reed, members, and Mrs. Ann Howard and Mrs. Jane Ann Laufenberger, guests.

Movie Producer Dies

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) —Y. Frank Freeman Jr., 46, motion picture producer and son of Y. Frank Freeman, vice president of Paramount Pictures, died Monday of a hemorrhage of the esophagus. He was a producer at Paramount.

Scientists at Michigan State University are seeking to isolate chemical "growth inhibitors." The scientists have found that most seeds are dormant at the time of harvest because they contain chemical compounds which inhibit germination.

Police Confiscate Gun Of 'Drunken Texan'

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Police arrested a man at a downtown hotel because he was carrying a gun.

When filling out police forms, detectives used only two words to explain why the gun was confiscated—"drunken Texan."

Cook extra cornmeal mush and mold it in the refrigerator. After slicing, dip the mush in beaten egg and crisp cereal crumbs before frying. This coating adds interesting texture contrast.

NAACP Starts Legal Move On Job Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has launched legal actions it said are aimed at getting equal hiring, promotion and other jobs rights for Negroes.

Robert L. Carter, NAACP general counsel, announced Tuesday that proceedings filed in San Francisco, Atlanta and St. Louis seek to eliminate alleged job discrimination in unions of seamen, steel workers and railroad trainmen.

Carter said the NAACP will file more court actions and proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board "in the very near future."

He said the breaking of racial barriers in jobs and in schools "will go a long way toward eliminating racial discrimination in the United States."

Hammondsville PTA To Sponsor Children's Party

HAMMONDSVILLE — Plans were outlined for a Halloween party for adults when the Parent-Teacher Association met Monday night in the school.

Mrs. Beula Young was named chairman of the masquerade party Oct. 30. Mrs. Helen Heiney will have charge of games and entertainment.

Homeroom mothers for the year were chosen during business conducted by Mrs. Evelyn Stewart, president.

They are: Mrs. Eva M. Parsons, first grade; Mrs. Gloria Pinkerton, second; Mrs. Shirley Grafton, third; Mrs. Ruth Crowe, fourth; Mrs. Dorothy Millhorn, fifth, and Mrs. Stewart, sixth.

Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Joan Sprague were named delegates to the Jefferson County PTA Council. Alternates are Mrs. JoAnn Wilson and Mrs. Lillian Smolinsky.

The unit's membership drive is continuing. There are 54 regular members and three honorary members at present.

The program featured selections by the LaCroft Mother Singers. Refreshments were served.

Next meeting is Oct. 30.

Steel Official To Talk To Salem GOP Groups

LISBON — Alfred S. Glossbrenner, president of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., will speak for the combined Salem Republican clubs Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Memorial Building.

Anniversary Marked By Summitville Pair

About 100 attended open house held Sunday at St. John's Catholic Church Parish Hall at Summitville in observance of the 25th wedding anniversary of Frank and Agnes Clark.

The table was laid with white linen cloth and centered with a wedding cake, topped with white roses and flanked by silver candles in crystal holders.

Miss Coletta Kelley, sister of Mrs. Clark, poured. Others assisting were Mrs. Donald Clark, Mrs. John Nemeth, Mrs. George Bryan, Misses Doris and Betty Beki and Miss Patty Clark.

Miss Eileen Bryan, niece of Mrs. Clark, registered guests from Salem, Canton, Salineville, Kensington, Hanoverton, Mechanicstown, Millport and Highlandtown.

Social Security Trips Doubled At Midland

Due to an increase need for Social Security Administration services at Midland, the Ambridge office will send a representative to Midland two days a month during October and November.

A representative will be at the Midland Borough Building, the second and fourth Wednesday of the month from 1 to 3:30 p. m. Next dates are next Wednesday, Nov. 14 and Nov. 28.

Joseph J. Lutz, manager of the Ambridge office, said one visit a month proved inadequate and the extra day is being scheduled on the second Wednesday.

The additional day is temporary now and will become permanent if Midland area residents make use of services for applications and any questions concerning old-age, survivors and disability insurance.

Wellsville Rifle Club Sets Another Meeting

The organization of a junior rifle club in Wellsville will be completed at a meeting Thursday night at 8 at the Carnegie Library. The club is being formed by the Wellsville Jaycees for any boy and girl between 12 and 18.

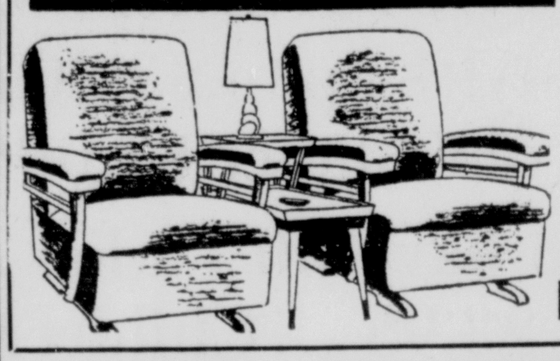

Officers will be elected and the bylaws will be read, according to Dan MacLean, chairman. He said the charter will be established.

Those interested in joining should bring a $3 registration fee. The club will use the third floor of City Hall as a range. A range was located on the third floor some years ago.

Ohio Woman Admits Killing Her Husband

EATON, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies say Mrs. Peggy Carroll, 28, has admitted killing her husband with a .22 caliber rifle after he beat her. Mrs. Carroll arrested late Tuesday in the shooting death of George Herman Carroll, 32, at their home near Lewisburg.

Deputies quoted her as saying he was drunk, beat her and chased their daughter Vicki, 14, from the house before she fired. No charge was filed immediately.

Picking Of Jury Continues Today In Murder Trial

HAYS, Kan. (AP)—Selection of a jury is expected to require two and possibly three more days in the trial of Harry Jack Bloomer, charged with first-degree murder in the slaying of Al Claycamp, city marshal of Wakeeney, Kan.

Fourteen jurors were qualified Tuesday. Delmas Haney of Hays, Bloomer's court - appointed attorney, said a total of 44 jurors will be qualified and jury selection will require two and possibly three more days.

The 29-year-old Bloomer, formerly of Youngstown, Ohio, and Shirley Nixon, 17, of Wilsonville, Neb., were arrested three days after the shooting.

Claycamp, 37, was slain and Sheriff Chet McAtte, 55, of Trego County was wounded after they picked up a hitch-hiking couple and offered a ride to Wakeeney. The girl has been committed as a juvenile delinquent to the Girls' Industrial School.

Bloomer's trial was brought to Ellis County District Court in Hays on a change of venue.

W. R. Hainline, Trego County attorney, has indicated he will seek the death penalty.

Clarkson Grange Meeting Planned

The Clarkson Grange will meet Thursday night at 8, instead of 8:30 as previously, Reuben Lunger, master, announced.

Doughnuts and cider will be served by Mrs. Edith Thompson, chairman of the home economics committee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard of Columbiana visited Mrs. Blanche Williams Sunday.

Women of the Clarkson Grange served a lunch for some 23 on a tour at the Beaver Creek State Park Saturday.

Cleveland Policemen Will Guard Kennedy

CLEVELAND (AP)—Nearly 300 Cleveland policemen are to be on special assignment Friday to help protect President Kennedy and to handle traffic during the President's brief visit here.

President Kennedy is to fly into Cleveland Hopkins Airport from Washington, travel in a motorcade to Public Square for a speech at 12:45 p.m. (daylight time), and leave the airport at 2 p.m. for Springfield, Ill.

Police Chief Frank Story said some 170 policemen would be posted at various points for the President's protection. An undisclosed number of Secret Service men also will be on hand.

Another 100 traffic police will be assigned posts along the route of the motorcade to keep traffic under control.

'The General' Breaks Pipe, To Be Repaired

CINCINNATI (AP)— Cincinnati youngsters and rail buffs probably won't get a chance to see the famed old locomotive, "The General," for another year.

The century-old engine — chief prize of an attempted Union guerilla raid in the Civil War—broke a drive pipe Tuesday and was packed off for repairs.

Officials of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad put the locomotive on a flatcar for a trip to the Louisville, Ky., repair yards today.

The General was to be on exhibit here six days.

Rail officials said, however, that other commitments for the old locomotive would likely prevent a return until next year.

Cleveland Police Arrest Man In Strangulation Of Girl, 5

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police arrested a man early today in connection with the death of a 5-year - old girl whose body was found in a closet in an East Side apartment.

Homicide detectives Steve Hospodar and Frank Dimperio quoted him as saying he strangled the girl and then put her in a tub of water because his common-law wife was dating someone else.

The man was identified as Lawrence Billingsley, 27, also known as Billy Anderson. He was held for investigation.

The body of the girl, Johnette Lee, was found Tuesday night wrapped in a blanket on a closet shelf in the apartment. She apparently had been dead four days, investigators said.

An autopsy was ordered to determine the cause of death.

Detectives said a note found with the body was written by Billingsley and told how the girl begged him to spare her life. Billingsley also admitted in the note killing the girl, they said.

Billingsley and the woman with whom he lived, Mrs. Delores Dean Lee, 28, moved out of the apartment Monday night, according to police.

Mrs. Lee, mother of the girl, later telephoned police Billingsley had drowned her child and left her in the apartment.

A police search of the apartment was in vain and detectives left. They returned later and found the body and the note after a man identifying himself as Billingsley phoned authorities and told them where to find the body.

Mrs. Lee, located at a drugstore from which she had phoned police, was taken into custody for questioning. Detectives said they arrested Billingsley at 3 a.m. today in a girl friend's apartment on the East Side.

2 Ohioans Are Killed In Car-Truck Crash

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—Two persons were killed in the crash of a car and a tractor-trailer on U.S. 42 two miles north of here early today.

The High Patrol identified the dead as Mrs. Gertrude A. Thompson, 49, and Archie R. Cunningham Jr., 24, both of Medina.

Mrs. Gertrude was the driver of the car and Cunningham was her passenger, the patrol said.

The truck was driven by Chester H. Boss Jr., 39, of Highland Heights, Ky. He was not injured.

Man In Stab Case Faces Murder Charge

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—James H. Washabaugh, 38, held by suburban Kettering police since Darrell Lakes, 17, was wounded Sept. 30, now faces murder charges. Lakes died in Miami Valley Hospital Tuesday.

He was stabbed with a hunting knife, police say, in an argument at Washabaugh's home.

Emergency Aid Due Farmers In County

Columbiana County farmers are eligible to receive emergency feed for their livestock from government stockpiles as the result of the summer's drought, it was announced today.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays said he was notified by Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman's office that farmers who show a need for grain can now purchase it at 75 per cent of the support price for foundation (breeder) herds of cattle and sheep and may obtain up to a 90-day supply.

Additional feed for non-foundation animals may be purchased at the support price level, he added. Support price is usually lower than parity.

Farmers should apply at the County ASC office at Lisbon.

Killed In Collision

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — A two-car collision at the crest of a hill on Ohio 247 has killed one of the drivers—Charles Simmons, 52, of Seaman. Two other persons were hurt in the wreck Tuesday about 10 miles south of here.

Wellsville Council Acts

Funds Approved On Street Lights

Third and final reading was given legislation authorizing transfer of monies from the parking meter fund to pay for installation of street lights at Wellsville Council meeting Tuesday night.

It was one of three pieces of legislation carried over from the previous meeting because of lack of sufficient votes.

—:—

SECOND reading was then given legislation specifically authorizing that $3 a month be taken out of the meter fund for a street light on Riverside Ave. Councilman Robert Taggart opposed both.

Legislation was given first reading making Buckeye Ave. a stop street at the intersection with 10th St. Councilman Frank DeLonzo opposed the measure.

Legislation was passed under suspension of rules to take a total of $7,000 from the water depreciation fund for improvements to the water system. Of this, $2,000 will pay for a new chlorinator and changing of sand at the filtration plant. This was done during the summer. The remaining $5,000 will be for cleaning, repairing and painting the standpipes.

A RESOLUTION on a county-wide mutual aid agreement between fire departments was re-enacted as it was passed at the last meeting under suspension of rules with only four councilmen present and six votes are needed to adopt legislation in this method. It provides for Wellsville to become a part of a setup in the county that is being co-ordinated for emergencies.

A lengthy and at times heated discussion was held over whether a property owner should be responsible for moving his water line about 18 or 20 inches to line up with a new tap.

Councilman William Stroble said a resident on 25th St. was faced with this problem. Stroble reported the man said the city repaired a break in the main and then retapped the line a short distance away.

—:—

HE QUESTIONED Safety Service Director Fred Baldasare about the situation, asking him if the city was responsible for the needed pipe and changing of the line.

Baldasare said the resident should have contacted him instead of calling everyone else. Stroble also questioned him on a remark that the man made about only one city employe could operate the tap machine.

Baldasare said he did not train the personnel. He said the problem shouldn't even be discussed.

Councilman Allen Baldwin asked Baldasare why he became antagonistic each time a councilman remarked he has been called on the phone. He accused Baldasare of having "a chip on his shoulder." Baldasare said the mayor and himself are the administrators and that Council is just a legislative body.

STROBLE said he would speak his piece anytime in Council during one part of the discussion. It ended with Stroble asking the director and water chairman to investigate the situation.

Another long discussion was held on a proposal made by Stroble to post no parking signs on the south side of Main St. between 12th and 18th Sts. The question of legality was raised and also as to who owns adjoining property. Stroble said the property belongs to the city as it reverted back from the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mayor William Daugherty suggested an actual survey be made and that the city file for the land.

Stroble moved for the signs, claiming they could be erected on the street regardless of who owned the property. He said people parking in the area pull out into traffic and create a hazard.

—:—

HIS MOTION died after Councilman Dwight MacLean withdrew his second following the discussion. Council then voted to meet Thursday night at 7:30 to further discuss the problem and what to ask the railroad.

Stroble said he understands the water bonds are to be retired in 1963 and suggested that perhaps the water rates then can be lowered.

Council approved a motion to transfer $284 from the contingency fund to the general fund for use in indigent burials. The mayor made the request.

Rev. James Sanko, in the audience, suggested the indigent cadavers be turned over to the Pittsburgh Medical School. He said this is allowed under Ohio law.

A DISCUSSION was held on the number of police officers used in the cruiser on various turns. A brief discussion was held with Chief John Hephner. Two men are used on three nights and one man on four nights. Baldasare said the discussion should be curbed and continued in private in the interests of public safety."

The problem resulted when the department was placed on a 45-hour week. Permission was granted Howard R. Williamson to cut the curb at 715 Aten Ave. for a driveway.

Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, clerk, was directed by Council to send a letter of commendation to the fire department for the Fire Prevention Week observance. Fire Chief Robert Lewis remarked following the meeting that the entire department deserved the credit for the work.

DeLonzo said he would set up a meeting with the union and Pennsylvania Railroad officials to discuss the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the New York Central. The union is opposing the merger.

DeLONZO, chairman, said the property committee recommends the city not sell property now being rented the Georgetts River-Rail Terminal. Legislation was ordered to place the $150 a month rental fee in the general fund instead of the sewage disposal fund.

The ordinance committee was asked to check whether refuse material could be burned in an outside brick fireplace. A man asked from the audience if this is permitted.

Rev. Sanko gave the opening prayer.

School Board Meets

Bus Drivers Workshop Slated At Lisbon Oct. 30

LISBON — The annual county school bus drivers' workshop will be held Oct. 30 at 6:45 p. m. at the Lincoln School with Robert Drury, legal consultant for the Ohio Education Association, as the guest speaker.

The dinner cost is paid by the two East Liverpool and Salem auto clubs, which sponsor the workshops each year for drivers and school board members.

Final plans were made at the meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday evening in the county school offices with Mrs. Freeman Strabley of Salineville, president, presiding.

Supt. James L. McBride and Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, county board member, will set up an all-county school boards meeting next year. The location and speaker will be announced later for the third annual meeting of the boards.

Hubert Lawrence of Columbiana, psychologist for the county school system, was hired for 12 months by the county board. He had a contract for 11 months, but will receive $350 for the extra month, which will be paid for by the state.

Mrs. Louise Martin and a neighbor, William Bauman attended last night's meeting in reference to the Southern Local Board refusing to pay her $2.50 per day to haul her five children from her home to the school bus stop. Southern Local board, which claims the road is not good enough for bus use, had paid her $2.50 for the past year but has lowered it to $1 per day, which she refused.

The county board said that it will check the condition of the road, which is the Clark Mill Rd. in Washington Township, and will try to give her answer at the next meeting. If the county board feels she should be paid more, it can authorize Southern to raise the amount.

Southern Local board members will be requested to attend the next county board meeting to settle the complaint.

Supt. McBride reported on conventions he has attended in the past month and discussed drop-outs who have obtained jobs. He said most drop-outs are due to the cost of owning a car. He said he will require them to have their cars inspected and show they have insurance before he will issue working certificates.

Fred Lohman, attendance officer, said he made 36 home calls and 40 to schools during the month, traveling 987 miles.

Bills of $1,121.27 were ordered paid. Next meeting is Nov. 20 in the county offices when the budget for the coming year will be set up.

Winners In Fire Prevention Events Listed At Wellsville

Winners were announced today in one phase of the school program and in the red tie contest held by the Wellsville fire department last week in conjunction with the observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis termed the school program highly successful. He said the work was done by Assistant Chief Robert Lloyd and Fireman Frank Fusco.

The Immaculate Conception Parochial School and Fairview School at Hillcrest tied in a junior fire marshal program. Each had 100 per cent return on junior fire marshal magazines and home inspection blanks.

A trophy was provided and the name of each school will be inscribed on the name plates. Each will hold the traveling trophy for half the school year. The principals of the schools are Lester Bickle at Fairview and Sister Francis Xavier at Immaculate Conception.

The individual classrooms winning special achievement awards for 100 per cent return on the blanks were as follow:

MacDonald — Miss Wilia Jane MacDonald, first grade; Mrs. Gladys McIntosh, first grade; Mrs. Mrs. Louise Dash, second, and Mrs. Martha Somers and Mrs. Mary Helen Hepp, third.

Garfield — Miss JoAnn Van Dyke, second and third, and Miss Mildred Metts, third.

All of the children were presented helmets and badges. They were provided by the Miller Insurance Co., Lewis said.

A poster contest still is being judged. Winners of this phase will be announced later. The Jaycees purchased the trophies.

Men who wore the bright red ties and were termed "fire marshals" included Charles Donaldson, Richard Jones, Mayor William Daugherty, Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare, Ralph Grafton, Dave Metzger and Dutch Warden.

Each day a different one was designated "fire marshal of the day" and the first person asking them if they were won a prize. The winners were Mrs. Frank Bonadio, Jack Sayre, Atty. William Bush, Mrs. Kenneth Morris, Mike Albaneso, and Ilene Milligan.

All were guessed by Mrs. Morris of R. D. 1 who received a special prize. The prizes were donated by Acme Craft Ware, Sterling China Co., W. C. Bunting Co., Kiwanis Club and Wellsville China Co.

In other phases, open house was held Saturday at the station by the volunteer firemen. Those in charge were Tom Lanam, chairman, Glenn Mathews, Jack Call, John Roberts and Jim Elliott. Signs were installed on fire plugs, wooden signs were erected around town, a "grave yard" was erected in front of the station and posters were used in all mercantile and industrial plants.

The overall program was termed one of the most successful the department has ever conducted.

Nigeria Makes Bid In U.N. To Kill Seat Allocating Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Backed by 20 other nations of Black Africa, Nigeria makes a bid in the U.N. General Assembly today to kill the 16-year-old "gentleman's agreement" allocating Security Council seats.

Nigeria is contesting with Morocco for the council seat heretofore held by a Middle East—or Arab—nation. But most delegates expected Morocco to muster the two-thirds majority needed for election in the voting this afternoon.

The voting follows a week of bitter wrangling that has split the 53-nation Asian-African group and ranged the Arabs against the black Africans.

Storm center of the fight has been Nigerian Foreign Minister Jaja Wachuku, outspoken critic of the gentleman's agreement reached in London in 1946. It gave two of the nonpermanent seats on the 11-nation council to Latin America and one each to East Europe, West Europe, the Middle East and the British Commonwealth.

Wachuku told the assembly in his policy speech Monday that the black African states "would put up a last ditch fight "to test the sincerity or insincerity of this gentleman's agreement."

Nigeria originally insisted it should get the West European seat Ireland vacates at the end of the year. But when it became apparent Norway would get that spot, the group of 21 African countries announced it would back Nigeria for the Middle East seat now held by the United Arab Republic.

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

Convicted after a 3½-hour hearing Tuesday in Municipal Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol, Charles A. Trautman, 50, of Substation was fined $250 and costs, sentenced to five days in City Jail and his operator's permit was suspended for six months.

Trautman was found guilty by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after testimony and argument that began at 9:30 a. m. and continued without a break for lunch, ending at 1 p. m. A long series of witnesses testified.

Trautman was arrested Oct. 4 after his car allegedly struck a parked auto in the 1000 block of St. Clair Ave. Trautman pleaded not guilty at arraignment Oct. 9. Atty. George A. Aronson appeared for the defense and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper prosecuted.

City Driver Charged In Route 170 Mishap

Moderate damage resulted from a rear-end collision of two cars on Route 170 at the intersection with Route 30 Tuesday afternoon a. 4:50, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A sedan operated by Phyllis McDowell, 35, of the Y. & O. Rd. was struck from behind by one driven by James Fersch, 24, of 1700 Idaho Ave.

Officers said the woman halted, then pulled closer to the intersection and stopped again, and Fersch's car struck her's. He was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Mission Sets Youth Dinner

Kenneth Steen, superintendent of the Community Rescue Mission, announced at a Board of Directors meeting Tuesday night that a Thanksgiving dinner will be served Nov. 17 to Bible School children who attend Saturday morning sessions.

It was also announced that during September 207 meals were served; 82 beds provided, and 21 families aided.

The superintendent said that the teachers of the 25 Bible Clubs of the area meet once a month at the mission for training. The teachers, under the supervision of Mrs. Steve Richman, selected the mission as their meeting place because it is centrally located. The meetings were previously held at the Boyce Methodist Church auditorium.

Steen also reported that a new program has been started at the Youth Center located in the mission. Workshops are conducted Mondays for boys, with James Sayre in charge, and workshop sessons are held Tuesdays for girls under the supervision of Mrs. Steen. Recreation sessions are held Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

It was reported that about 30 student nurses from City Hospital toured the mission in September. Bill Smith, chairman, presided.

Next board meeting is Nov. 17.

140 Students Receive TB Tests In Lisbon

LISBON — A total of 140 Mantoux TB tests were given at Lisbon Schools Monday and Tuesday according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

Monday, the staff gave 83 tests at Lincoln School to eighth graders, and Tuesday gave 57 to senior high school students.

Today the staff read the tests from Lincoln and Thursday will read those from the high school Dr. Palmer said.

Artist, 93, Dies

MANCHESTER, Mass. (AP) — Charles Hopkinson, 93, internationally known portrait artist whose works hang in many of the nation's famous museums, died Monday. He was one of a small group of artists chosen in 1919 to paint the portraits of signers of the Versailles Treaty.

Fire Damages Dozer At Lisbon Strip Mine

LISBON — Village fireman reported extensive damage to a bulldozer which caught fire Tuesday afternoon at the Kannal Coal Co. strip mine about three miles southwest.

Fireman, called at 2:30 p. m., said all the wiring, cab upholstery and windows were destroyed. Harry Kannal, owner, said it was insured.

Duff Temple, operator of the dozer, was not injured, fireman said.

Area Boards Wait Session

Midland, Southern Beaver County and Western Beaver County Boards of Education expect to be represented at the Beaver County school directors convention Thursday and Friday evenings at Highland-Surburban Junior High School near Beaver Falls.

A dinner will be held only Thursday evening beginning at 6:30. Those who can not attend the dinner may attend the meeting afterward or the meeting Friday evening.

Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, and Mrs. Jane Speerhas, secretary, both of Western Beaver, also plan to attend.

Main topics will include the reorganization of schools, arrangement of services for gifted pupils and planning for area technical school services, including a practical nursing course and possibly setting up an audio-visual and material center for the county.

Woman Driver Fined, 2 Others Forfeit $45

LISBON — Ruth E. Keister, 36, of Minerva R.D. received a suspended 30-day jail sentence and was fined $50 and costs for driving a motor vehicle without an operator's license at a hearing Tuesday before County Judge James L. MacDonald.

In other cases, Clifford F. Boring, 46, of Carrollton forfeited $20 bond for failure to obey a stop sign at an intersection, and Harry C. Crutchman, 44, of Akron forfeited a $15 bond for speeding. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Loch Lomond is 24 miles long and five miles wide. It is located in the southwest corner of Scotland.

Lisbon PTA's Meet Jointly

LISBON — The McKinley and Lincoln Parent - Teachers Associations held a combined meeting at McKinley school Monday evening and devotions were led by Mrs. Bruce Workman, chaplain.

Mrs. Glen Ward, McKinley president presided for business. Mrs. Charles Homan's third grade received all three prizes for the recent membership drive. A trophy, donated by local jewelers, was also presented to the class for the highest percentage of parents and friends to join.

Supt. Oliver H. Payne was introduced and spoke briefly.

Members were reminded of the McKinley PTA bake sale to be held Friday at the Masonic storeroom.

Mrs. William Brown, program leader, introduced Mrs. William Dunlap of Wintersville, director of family life in the Methodist Church for the Steubenville district. "The Family Life In Focus" was her subject, pointing out the importance of family and church guidance in rearing children.

Mrs. Robert A. Williams introduced the room mothers for each teacher at the McKinley School.

Methodist Men View 2 Movies At Meeting

Several projects were discussed at a meeting of the Methodist Men of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Monday evening.

George Welker, president, conducted business, and Douglas Manning led devotions. Harry Drane gave the treasurer's report.

Two films, obtained from Carnegie Public Library, were shown.

Refreshments were served by Frederic McManus.

Women of the church will be guests Nov. 15.

Rep. Hays Addresses Kiwanis At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — "The Communists have failures, too," Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, said in a talk before the Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at Mackall's Restaurant.

Rep. Hays also attended an open house held later in the evening at the Democratic headquarters on N. Market St., sponsored by the city Democratic Club.

Political Literature Illegal In Mailboxes

Chester Postmaster Robert Edwards warned Chester residents today that postal regulations prohibit anyone placing anything but mail matter in mailboxes.

Edwards said the city postal carriers are complaining of political literature being dropped in mailboxes in the last few days. Edwards said this has also occurred with store advertisements.

Apparently someone is supposed to be passing out the literature and instead is dropping it in the mailboxes.

300 At Phone Science Event

Three - hundred attended a Telephone Science Night program presented at Wellsville MacDonald School Tuesday by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

The public affairs department of the Cleveland office was in charge. A display of telephone parts and the evolution of the telephone was shown in the lobby. Also shown was a solar battery and objects pertaining to the nation's defense.

Donald Honicky, commercial manager of the East Liverpool office, introduced Miss Mary Alice Lemal, business office supervisor, who spoke on the service representative's job; Al Weber, plant chief for the East Liverpool area, who spoke on installation, repairs and testing, and Mrs. Mildred McKim, chief operator, who spoke on traffic department operation and long distance calls.

Ralph Riefenstahl of Cleveland, public activities supervisor, was principal speaker. He reviewed the Telstar satellite, optical maser and laser and introduced a film on national defense, "Seconds for Survival."

A mobile display unit was parked on the street. Members of the school Parent - Teacher Association served refreshments. Mrs. Robert Lewis, president, was in charge.

Club Convention Details Reviewed

Highlights of the 1962 Kiwanis convention at Wheeling Oct. 7-9 were reviewed at a meeting of the Chester club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Speakers were Russell Davis, Raymond Stevens, R. M. McFarland and Paul Finley, president. They commended the five Chester Key Club members who assisted as bellboys the opening day of the event.

Robert Cooley and Tom Ridge were named team captains for a ticket sales contest for the annual public pancake supper Nov. 7-8.

Finley read the five proposed West Virginia constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 6. The amendments provide for revised liquor laws, including sale of liquor in taverns; revision of the state executive and budget laws, including two terms permitted the governor and consolidation of departments; permitting sheriffs to serve two 4-year terms; authorization for at least one delegate for each county, and revision of the Legislature's procedures.

Jim Obenour and John Brand of the Key Club were guests. About 22 attended.

Career girl supper: cook liver for yourself once or twice a week. A serving of this variety meat, plus a large green salad, will offer the day's quotient of iron.

Youth Who Tried To Attack Girl Shot By Officer

CLEVELAND (AP) — William Dukes, 18, was reported in critical condition at Mt. Sinai Hospital after being shot by a policeman in Doan Park, where he had gone on an after-school date with a 14-year-old girl. Surgeons removed a bullet lodged near the boy's heart.

Police said Dukes tried to attack the girl Tuesday and that University Circle patrolman Walter Sigmond, 27, was summoned to the East Side park by a passerby who heard the girl's screams. Sigmond fired once after Dukes swam Doan Creek and tried to climb a wall at the far side, police said. He said Dukes ignored his command to stop.

Detectives said Dukes will be charged with attempted statutory rape of the girl, with whom he had had dates before. The girl told police that Dukes said he wanted to ravish her and that he pulled her to the ground. That was when she started screaming.

The girl was treated at the hospital for shock and was released.

Standing Fort

STANFORD, Ky. (AP) — This Lincoln County seat received its name from an Indian attack which failed. The stockade which remained was named Standing Fort. The name was corrupted to its present form.

Parades, Queen Contests Launch Pumpkin Show

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — This pumpkin-fancying community opens its 56th Pumpkin Show since 1903 today with two parades and a couple of queen contests.

Activities officially get under way this afternoon and continue until late Saturday night. As usual, an eight-block area in the heart of Circleville has been blocked off to allow room for boothes, rides, marchers, contests and the crowd in general.

With the exception of two of the World War II years and once in World War I, the show has been an annual affair in this community of 11,000 since Mayor George R. Haswell arranged a display of corn, grain and pumpkins in front of his Main Street office in 1903.

A first or second grader will be named Little Miss Pumpkin Show this afternoon and a high school-age girl Miss Pumpkin Show tonight.

Exhibitors will compete for more than $350 in prizes for the best pumpkins and gourds, and there will be a daily pumpkin-pie baking contest with a bake - off Saturday.

The first two stars added to the original 13 on the United States' flag were for Kentucky and Vermont, in 1794.

Boy Plays Santa And Gets Stuck

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Playing Santa Claus to please the little girl next door, Jimmy Kelly, 5, got stuck in the chimney of the outdoor fireplace and grill in his back yard.

Jimmy was staging "The Night Before Christmas" for 5-year-old Allison Doane Tuesday. He descended to his nose with his arms extended above his head when he came to a full stop in the chimney. He couldn't move up or down, and he didn't even have a pack of toys on his back.

Allison's mother notified her husband, Dr. James H. Doane Jr., police nad Jimmy's mother.

Doane and Abington Township patrolman Richard McClelland mounted the brick barbecue bastion. Taking Jimmy's arms, they rocked him back and forth. After 10 minutes they eased him out unhurt.

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Salineville will meet Tuesday night at the Parish Hall.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Betty Rhodes, Mrs. Anna Mae Fraser and Miss Myrtle Strable.

Misses Rachel and Patricia Kelley of Summitville visited here Monday.

The sale of jewelry has been authorized as a fund - raising project by the Alpha Zeta sorortiy. The ways and means committee will be in charge. A cosmetics party is planned Oct. 24.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Hurley of Water St. were Mrs. Ford Beans, Mrs. Wilfred Preston and daughter, Ruth, and son, Allen, and Miss Jane Wolf of Atwater and Miss Patricia Miller of Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Smith of Westville and Earl Smith of Alliance have concluded a visit with W. B. Smith and Miss Margaret Smith of W. Main St.

Pvt. Larry Carman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carman of R. D. 3, has completed a finance procedures course at Ft. Harrison, Ind.

Frank Murray was transferred Sunday from the Town & Country Rest Home to City Hospital.

700 Attend First Of Travelogues

About 700 attended the first of the World Travel and Adventure Series sponsored by the Quota Club Tuesday night at Westgate School.

Ed Lark gave the narration for his travelogue, "Provincial France."

Proceeds go to the Hearing and Speech Clinic which the club operates at Westgate School.

Dr. Edith Gilmore, member of the ways and means committee, made the introduction. Mrs. Marie Hays, chairman, was assisted at the ticket booth by Mrs. May Hartt.

Mrs. Rebecca Turk and Mrs. Nellie McLain were at the door and Mrs. Lucille Singer handled the candy and drink concession.

Ted Bumiller will present a travelogue of "Scandinavia in the Four Seasons" next Tuesday at 8 p. m.

MD Fund Drive Theme Selected

LISBON — "From This Moment On" will be the theme for Muscular Dystrophy Fund Drive beginning Nov. 1. Jerry Lewis will again be the national chairman.

Floyd Trachsel of Columbus, regional director, spoke to the Columbiana County MD group Monday evening at the V.F.W. HALL on setting up the campaign.

Trachsel and Miss Jane Royle of Salem are selecting area chairmen for the drive for $6,000, this year's quota.

John Cosma of Lisbon, president of the County MD group, presided.

Record Crowd Seen For Democrat Dinner

LISBON — Advance ticket sales indicate a record crowd for the Jefferson - Jackson Day dinner to be held Saturday at Beaver Local High School, according to Don Gosney, county Democratic chairman.

Stewart L. Udall, secretary of the Department of the Interior, will be guest speaker.

Tentative committees were set up at the meeting in the Democratic headquarters Monday night for the rally. All Democratic candidates up for election will attend, Gosney said.

Man Burned Fatally In Factory Explosion

CINCINNATI (AP)—Roy Crocker, 44, a workman at the Emery Industries plant, was burned fatally late Tuesday in an explosion at the Cincinnati chemical factory.

Firefighters said a tank blew up on the third floor and the blast carried through pipes to a larger tank on the second floor which Crocker was tending.

2 Steal $10,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A man dressed like a priest and his companion stole $10,000 from the home of the president of a construction firm Tuesday, police were told. Anthony V. Lomelo, president of the Lomelo Construction Co., said the robbers, armed and masked, pried open a rear storm door and entered a bedroom, took a strongbox from the bedroom closet, removed the cash and fled.

3 Men Hurt During Work

Three Wellsville men injured in separate work mishaps were treated at City Hospital Tuesday, along with three other district residents.

Keith Anderson, 23, of 815 Commerce St., Wellsville, employe of the Sterling China Co., suffered a laceration of the right leg when caught in a conveyor belt.

Louis C. Cianni, 55, of 1235 Clover St., Wellsville, suffered a laceration of a finger on iron at the Wesco Manufacturing Co.

D. D. Dowling, 28, of 323 11th St., Wellsville, suffered burns of the forearm from hot tar while at work as a pipe fitter.

Elmer Schmitt, 51, of R. D. 3 was treated for lacerations of the left arm received on barbed wire.

In a fall from a tricycle, Mark Clendenning, 2, son of Mrs. Mary Ellen Clendenning, 403 Burrows Ave., suffered a cut of the chin.

Kenneth Hoschar, 27, of Hammondsville R. D. was treated for flash burns of the eyes received while welding on his auto.

Actor Dick Powell Steps Out Of TV Post

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor-producer Dick Powell, fighting cancer, stepped out of the presidency of Four-Star Television telling stockholders:

"I am not a damned bit scared. I am not resigning the presidency for health purposes."

Stockholders Tuesday elevated Powell to chairman of the board and elected Thomas J. McDermott, chief vice president, as president. The changes were made at Powell's request.

Powell told a hushed stockholders' meeting that he is gaining on his battle against cancer. He brought up the subject of his health.

Men's Unit Holds Father-Son Fete

Forty - seven attended the father-son banquet held by the United Presbyterian Men Monday night at the Wellsville Riverside United Presbyterian Church.

D. F. Reynolds of Calcutta spoke on the "Relationship of Father to Son." He outlined the problems of a boy in school and college and gave his opinion on what fathers can do to help.

Mrs. Noble's Class served supper. Fall flowers were used in the decorations. The group opened the meeting by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Rev. James Sanko gave the benediction.

Don Salsberry, president, conducted business. He named a committee to obtain signs for erection at entrances to the city advertising the church. It includes William Shoub, James Salsgiver and E. R. Warden.

Midland Man Freed By Jury Of Larceny

A 27-year-old Midland Man was found not guilty of larceny after a jury deliberated about two hours Tuesday afternoon at Lisbon.

Charles Allen had been accused of taking money in a deposit box at the Petrosol Co. gas station last April 12.

Allen was indicted by the September Grand Jury, along with Carl Leak, also of Midland, who pleaded guilty and requested probation.

Leak testified for the state against Allen, who claimed that he had told Leak he "wanted no part of the theft."

Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard told the jury to return at 1 p.m. today for the trial of Ronald R. Hathman, 24, of Campbell, indicted for a burglary at the J. & E. Record Shop in Columbiana March 16.

THE CASE FOR THE SUNDAY NECESSITIES AMENDMENT

You will vote November 6 on a statewide question identified on the ballot as Issue #1.

It is a proposal to clarify Ohio's Sunday closing regulations and limit Sunday sales and services to certain specific essential items. The items are:

- PRESCRIPTION DRUGS
- GASOLINE AND OIL
- PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION
- MILK
- MILK PRODUCTS
- TELEPHONE
- TELEGRAPH
- ELECTRIC SERVICE
- NATURAL GAS
- OTHER UTILITIES
- NEWSPAPERS
- OTHER NEWS PUBLICATIONS
- RADIO BROADCASTING
- TELEVISION BROADCASTING
- OTHER COMMUNICATIONS
- PROPRIETARY DRUGS
- MEDICAL SUPPLIES
- PERSONAL HYGIENE PRODUCTS
- FOOD
- HOUSEHOLD FUELS

Although these items can now be obtained in practically every Ohio community on Sundays, there is a question of doubt about the legality of all of them. They could be taken away at any time, depending on how literally a local enforcement officer wishes to take the present law.

The law that makes them questionable is the Ohio Sunday Closing Law, or so-called Blue Law, which dates back to 1831. It was written for conditions 131 years ago. In the same year it was passed, six Ohioans in the Cincinnati area were tried for witchcraft.

Legislature Has Done Nothing

We still have this law on the books, virtually unchanged. As long ago as 1919, it was recognized that the regulations needed modernizing, and a bill to update them was introduced in the Ohio legislature at that time. The issue of Sunday closing, however, proved to be too controversial for our legislators, surrounded as it was by questions of religious conviction, and the bill was dropped.

Since then, more bills to modernize the law have been introduced in the legislature every session or two. In the past 22 sessions, covering nearly half a century, there have been 34 different bills brought before the legislature, which has failed to act on all of them. It was not until 1959, when Ohio's Attorney General threatened to close down the State Fair on Sundays if something were not done to legalize it, that the so-called "state fair exemptions" were added to make entertainment and recreation legal.

These exemptions, however, have not clarified the "problem" clause of the law, which states that no work may be performed on Sundays unless it be work of necessity or charity. This leaves up to individual officials in hundreds of communities the decision as to which items may be sold as necessities and what kind of work is necessary.

Judges Agree Law Needs Clarifying

As Judge Nathan Koplin puts it, "All is confusion and chaos because the law can be interpreted in so many different ways. I think it should be refined and redefined."

As Judge William Burns puts it, "Officials have varying interpretations because there is no criteria or set of standards in the Ordinance or Statute to guide officials in their enforcement. And by the same token no criteria has been provided for this Court to guide it in its interpretations. The ramifications of this silly, stupid, and idiotic law are endless . . .

"I see only one course out of this dilemma . . . revision of the present law. Otherwise there will be chaos in the courts, prosecutors' offices, and police departments; unnecessary financial burdens on our enforcing communities; and endless litigation."

Ohio's present governor, like many others before him, has attempted to get the law modernized. He went before a special session of the legislature and requested immediate action to clarify and update the Sunday closing law, saying "It is not well for government to have on its books laws that are not enforced or are enforced with an unequal hand."

Still, nothing was done. There are two principal reasons for the legislature's failure to act. One state senator put it bluntly: "It would be political suicide for a legislator to identify himself with either side of such a controversial issue as Sunday closing." But even more important is the overwhelming amount of pressure brought by the powerful retail merchants' lobby in Columbus, which has an interest in keeping the ancient law just as vague as it is. This lobby has been instrumental in killing all the bills introduced to clarify the law through legislative action.

Issue Taken to the People

This year, it became clear that the legislature, which had already backed away from 34 opportunities to act, would continue to back away, even though most legislators were privately agreed that "something should be done." Although The Lawson Milk Company had nothing to do with any of the legislative bills previously introduced, it did agree to sponsor an Initiative and Referendum action to clarify the law by a vote of the people. Petitions were circulated, and about half a million registered voters in 87 of Ohio's 88 counties signed them, assuring the Sunday Necessities Amendment a place on the November ballot. The retail merchants' lobby—the same group that had been successful in preserving the old law unchanged in the legislature—immediately went into action.

Merchants' Lobbyists Organizes Opposition

An official of this organization, a registered lobbyist for the merchants, was given a leave of absence to become executive secretary of the Voters Action Association, formed specifically to fight the amendment. He adopted the rallying cry, "Sunday as we know it will cease to exist if this amendment is approved!" He was able to convince a number of clergymen and union leaders that they should join the VAA to "prevent the collapse of something special—Sunday."

The VAA, acting for the merchants' lobby that created it, also put a great deal of pressure on Ohio's newspapers to editorialize against the amendment. Since retail merchants provide something over 75% of the average newspaper's advertising revenue, this effort was also partially successful, although several courageous editors have resisted the pressure and backed the amendment strongly.

The VAA has put forward a number of plausible-sounding arguments against the amendment.

First, they say that every item which the amendment proposes to legalize has already been made legal by court decisions except milk and food, which The Lawson Milk Company is attempting to legalize for selfish reasons.

Second, they say that this is a job for the legislature, not for an Initiative action by the people.

Third, they say that private companies have no business interfering in laws affecting the whole state.

Finally, they say the amendment will result in more Sunday business and will "open the door" for subsequent legalization of other, non-essential items.

Objections Proved Groundless

A search of Ohio's court decisions shows that there is no truth whatever to the first objection. When the VAA is asked to substantiate the "court decisions" which have already legalized any of the items in the amendment, they have nothing to put forward. The fact is, research in Ohio's jurisprudence all the way back to the 1830's reveals that there have been no clarifying decisions. In the words of the attorneys who conducted the exhaustive search:

"None of the items in the amendment can be said to be clearly exempted (from Sunday closing) either by the present law or by decisions of the courts."

Copies of the full report, listing chapter and verse of the law, are available to interested citizens.

The second objection is one with which most people, including the sponsors of the amendment, will agree. Changing the law is a job for the legislature. But when the legislature does nothing for 131 years, and continues to ignore the chaotic conditions that have developed, it is time the people took action. It is for just such situations as this that Initiative and Referendum procedures were provided in our government.

The third objection has been echoed in a number of newspaper editorials. "Why," the argument goes, "should the people support an attempt by a private company to legalize its own products on Sundays?"

The answer is equally simple: Why shouldn't they, if they want those products on Sundays? Independent surveys show that a majority of Ohioans do want both fresh milk and other foods available seven days a week. Milk, in fact, is considered necessary on Sundays by more people than telephone service (75.2% vs 71.6%). Yet some judges have ruled that milk cannot be considered "necessary" under a strict interpretation of the old law. The Lawson Milk Company, which has operated its stores on Sundays for 23 years, wants the cloud of doubt removed. If the legislature won't do it, the company maintains that it has a right to take the issue to the public, and at least half a million petition-signers evidently agree.

Initiative Actions Must Be Organized and Financed

Lawson's is doing more here than clarifying the "twilight zone" concerning its own operations, however. The company is organizing and financing an effort that simply cannot be successfully undertaken by ordinary citizens. The days are long past when groups of people could rise up, organize committees, and push through an Initiative or Referendum action in the public interest. Even the initial step of collecting half a million supporting signatures is too big a job. Today, there can be no recourse to Initiative procedures unless the effort is financed and organized by some commercial or semi-commercial organization with self-interest involved.

At the same time, that organization must also have overwhelming public support for the cause it undertakes. Otherwise, it simply wastes the large amounts of time and money required to gather the signatures and campaign in behalf of the proposal. That's why there will be no Initiative actions to legalize appliances, clothing, or other merchandise on Sunday; fewer than 20% of the people want them available.

People Want Only Necessities on Sundays

This brings up the final point, which is the heart of the controversy. Less than a quarter of the people (23.4%, according to the poll-takers) want more, or unlimited, Sunday commercialism. The great majority of Ohioans want Sunday business limited to necessities.

It is also equally clear that Ohioans are not getting what they want. Because of the confusion and controversy surrounding the ancient Blue Law, it is unenforced in the great majority of cities. Only a handful of communities make a show of enforcement, and there, the local officials draw their own arbitrary lines, defining necessities according to their own private opinions or—more often—the pressures placed upon them.

In most communities, any businessman who wants to open on Sundays may do so without fear of harassment. Stores of all descriptions are wide open virtually everywhere, with the single exception of large chain supermarkets, which have experimented with Sunday openings and found that they do not pay. (Sunday food buying is emergency buying; the average transaction comes to 87½ cents, which is enough for a small, family-operated food store, but not for a major market.) Including the merchandise being sold by discount houses, there are now about 200,000 different items for sale—most of them illegally—on Sundays.

Present Law Creates Hypocrisy

It would be difficult to imagine a more hypocritical situation—a law so vague and confusing that it is ignored by 99% of the men sworn to uphold it and deplored by 99% of the judges forced to interpret it. As long as Ohio continues with this law, we will have the same widespread Sunday commercialism that exists today.

Passing the Sunday Necessities Amendment will not repeal the present closing law. It will simply spell out what the word "necessity" means, and thereby make possible uniform and impartial enforcement of the law in every community.

Every Ohioan has the right to decide on the basis of his or her own requirements whether the items listed in the amendment are necessities. The Lawson Milk Company has no apologies for including fresh milk and bread in with the other essentials of modern living. Every item on the list is there because the people need it, want it, and should have it available.

How To Get What You Want

It's as simple as this: if you want to limit Sunday commercialism, and at the same time guarantee your right to get the specific listed necessities when you need them, you should vote YES . . . for honest Sundays.

Vote YES for Issue #1.

Powell Fails To Solve Own Mystery Show

People who watch TV drama are a strange breed. They like to know what's happening, and if you don't tell them, they get very restless. NBC has been bombarded with phone calls and indignant letters since last week's Dick Powell Show "Run Till It's Dark", which had Tuesday Weld and Fabian racing madly around the Nevada desert in a sports car. Several viewers called right after host Dick Powell bid them goodnight to ask harassed NBC switchboard operators, "What happened?" "Did we miss something?" "Is that show supposed to be continued next week?"

FOR AN HOUR they had watched Tuesday Weld running frantically from a menacing character (played by Bert Freed) with a gun. The only explanation for this chase was Miss Weld's story to her young acquaintance (Fabian) that her stepfather had hired this man to get her. She hinted that her stepfather was a racketeer and that she knew too much.

The thing which sent many a perplexed viewer into a state of semi-shock was the untimely self-destruction (she crashed the car into a police barricade) of Miss Weld, whose dying words to Fabian were, "It was my real father, not my stepfather."

And that was the end of the saga, except for Fabian picking up the broken corpse and carrying it to a police car.

IN AN EFFORT to solve this mystery and save the more disturbed viewers from a trip to a head doctor, I called Dick Powell to help us out.

"I must admit I didn't see the show," said Powell. "But it was just a gal running away from home. Haven't you got any kids? You know how these kids are today."

Yes, I have a couple of kids, but if either ran off, I don't think I'd send a guy with a gun after them, I told Powell.

"The show did run long and had to be cut, and unfortunately the part explaining Freed was cut out. He was just a private investigator hired by the father," Powell explained.

I DIDN'T have the heart to tell Powell that at one point this private investigator tracked Miss Weld to a motel and pounced at her with a handkerchief pulled taut in his hands, either to garrote or gag her.

Whichever it was, the match wouldn't even have been okayed by the guys who put Sonny Liston against Floyd Patterson. Freed must weigh in at around 210, while Miss Weld probably is no more than 95 pounds soaking wet.

Anyway, as Al Sisto (a friend of mine) put it, "How come one minute this guy is attacking the broad, then the next thing I see, he's with the cops?"

A more cynical observer might suspect producer Aaron Spelling and writer Turnley Walker of leading us down the garden path just to create some phony suspense.

A COUPLE of miles of chase scenes between the sports car bearing Miss Weld and Fabian and Freed's sedan might have been spared, had Spelling thought it vital to explain who Freed was, eh?

My own theory is that Freed actually was a Russian guy commissioned by Khrushchev to come here and grab a typical frustrated teen-ager, bring her back to Moscow, then send her on tour of the Red satellite countries to prove how decadent democracy has become.

Naturally, he wasn't about to own up to this when he saw the police moving in.

-:-

MAYBE VIEWERS won't buy this explanation, but I think it's better than going around the house mumbling to oneself, "Why didn't the father call the police in the first place, and . . .?"

Powell says they may have to re-edit this show before it's put on the rerun schedule.

I've a better idea. Take it up to Nevada in a sports car, then jump out and let the car and the film go off into the horizon.

Democratic Club Backs City Levy; Officer Chosen

The East Liverpool Men's Democratic Club, meeting Tuesday night in party headquarters on E. 6th St., voted to endorse the 1-mill firemen's levy for renewal at the Nov. 6 general election.

The action was taken after Donald Hancock, president, reminded the members the proposal is not a new tax but a continuation of a levy to support the fire department that has been in effect for many years.

Joseph A. Winters resigned as secretary and Hancock appointed Ray Winters to serve until the club's annual election in December. Leo Payne, city chairman, reported Rep. Wayne L. Hays will speak at a rally here next week. The date has not been set, he said.

Hancock appointed Frank Bennett as chairman of a fish fry to be held at headquarters Nov. 2. The club made a donation to the city central committee to aid in campaign expenses. Hancock reminded members of these dates: Saturday, the county Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at Beaver Local School; Oct. 25, a dinner at Wellsville for Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, and Oct. 27, Trades and Labor Council's annual banquet.

Next regular meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 13.

GOP Governor Candidate Plugs Ohio Youth Plan

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—The Republican candidate for governor says his proposed Ohio Youth Commission plan is the only method known today which can effectively deal with the problems of youth.

In a campaign speech here Tuesday, State Auditor James A. Rhodes said his program would give equal attention to treatment and prevention of juvenile delinquency. He said it also would provide for liaison between the system of treatment and prevention and the juvenile courts, which he asserted is now is virtually nonexistent.

Rhodes called endorsement of the plan by a majority of Ohio Juvenile Court judges indications "that the men who are on the firing line in this field recognize its merits."

Marine Vet Back On Tree Service Job Is Crushed

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A Marine Corps veteran from Lancaster, on his first day back on his tree service job since last spring, was crushed to death when an automobile smashed into him and the truck on which he was working Tuesday night.

Melvin Smith, 26-year-old veteran of eight years' service in the Corps, was thrown onto the hood of the car that hit him, then pinned between the truck tailgate and car windshield when the auto's hood went under the truck tailgate.

The car driver, Miss Glenna J. Williamson, 26, of Newark, and a fellow employe of Smith's, Marvin E. Miller of Rt. 1, Thornville, collapsed from shock and were hospitalized. Miller just managed to jump out of the way of the car.

Smith and Miller, with their boss, Brooks Foster of Rt. 1, Somerset, had just removed a tree from a property on Mount Vernon Road (Ohio 13) inside the city. Smith was chaining limbs to the truck when the Williamson car approached. Police said Miss Williamson probably didn't see the parked truck during a hard rain at dusk.

Smith's wife, Norma Jean, is expecting their first child in December.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What can I do about a husband who insists on maintaining what he calls "a wonderful relationship" with his former mother-in-law?

When I married Everett he had custody of his children. So now, under one roof, we have his children, my children and our children. Everett invites his ex-mother-in-law to baby-sit whenever we go out. She loves it and would cancel anything to be with "her angels." I've told him I don't like it, but he ignores me.

When I divorced Nick I severed relations with his parents because I feared their presence would be embarrassing to Everett. Now I think Everett should do as much for me.

He reads your column every day. Please print this letter and your comments, so he can see it. — R. C.

-:-

Dear R. C.: Here's the letter but I'm afraid when you see my answer you'll ditch the paper.

I think your husband is right. Why should this grandmother be deprived of seeing her daughter's children just because the girl and her husband made a mess of their marriage?

Too often grandparents are completely buried under the rubble and ashes of a divorce. I hope your letter and my reply will open a few eyes around the country and provide a better shake for the old folks.

Unholy Alliance

Dear Ann: I'm a widow 34 years old who has been going with a bachelor for five years. I'm not writing to ask why he doesn't marry me. I know why. He isn't ready.

What I want to know is would it be all right if my fiance took me and my 8-year-old son on a five-day motor trip to see Mount Rushmore? Ronnie has been wanting to see Mount Rushmore for a long time and my fiance said he would like to drive us.

We would be staying in motels, and Ron and my fiance would share one room and I'd be in another. Ron knows we have been going together for a long time and that one day we'll get married.

I hope you will see the educational value in this trip and say it's all right. Ronnie wants to make a report on this to his class. Thank you. — MOTHER BEE.

Dear Mother: This trip could have more educational value than you think. Your son's report to the class might start: "This man that my mother goes with ——."

It is not proper for unmarried people to travel together (even with an 8-year-old chaperon). After you and your fiance have taken that trip to the altar you can travel any place together. But not until.

Manners And Money

Dear Ann: Every time this question comes up I get hot under the collar. I say when etiquette doesn't match common sense, it ought to be chucked out the window.

Some of the so-called authorities on good manners criticize the practice of giving money as a wedding gift. They say it is gauche, crass, unimaginative and vulgar.

As a newlywed who has just been through the mill, I say these authorities are cracked. How I wish some of my relatives who gave us useless pieces of trivia had given us money instead!

We did receive some checks—all the way from $5 to $250—and we are not money-grubbing people but believe me every check we received was greatly appreciated.

When I wrote to thank these individuals I told them what Glen and I planned to buy with the check and I'm sure they felt good about it.

So, Ann Landers, will you please explode the myth that money is a vulgar wedding gift? Newlyweds all over the world will love you forever. — KANSAS CITY READERS.

Dear K. C. R.: A casual acquaintance should not give money as a wedding gift, but a close friend or relative can do so. It is not gauche, crass, unimaginative or vulgar.

Money is the one present which will fit in with the decor of any bride's home or apartment. She never will have to polish it. It can't break. She won't have to hunt for a place to store it. And there are no duplicates.

---

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Weaning Process Should Be Slow

Animal mothers and babies have no problems about weaning. The baby continues to take milk from its mother as long as the mother will remain still long enough for the baby animal to take it. With human beings, the problem relates more to the convenience of the mother, as a rule, and to what others think to be approved social practices. Some mothers also consider the overdependence of the youngster on them and act accordingly. Some breast - fed babies are weaned first from the breast while others are shifted to the bottle and later are weaned from it.

THE DIRECT transition would, on first thought, seem the more sensible. Yet there are practical factors. Accordingly, the breast-fed youngster of only a few weeks or months may have at least one daily feeding from the bottle, so he might be readied for possible illness of the mother of her absence from him for several hours.

Whether breast - fed or bottle-fed, the baby may, with quiet patience, be won to drink water, fruit juice or milk from a cup long before actual weaning begins. Some mothers offer an open, full, large - mouthed feeding bottle of milk to the infant gently and patiently or give him such liquids in a filled shallow cup.

"Slow and easy" is their slogan. They aim not to arouse resistance in the infant. When the slightest amount of it arises, they give up this time and try later. The secret of success is in gentleness, patience and persistence.

A HARVARD STUDY, interviewing a large number of mothers, found that the starting age for weaning varied from under five months to sixteen months, with the highest frequency between seven and ten months.

More than two-thirds had finished weaning by the time they were eighteen months old. Only a third were completely weaned by their first birthday. Most pediatricians think weaning of the breast - fed baby should be accomplished by the time the infant is a year old.

Weaning from the bottle is eased when, without too great resistance, a night feeding, say at 2 a.m., is omitted.

With most children, the bedtime bottle is the last to be given up. If, long before weaning - time, the bottle is given a little before bedtime, the problem may be easier. Some wise mothers gradually weaken the bottle milk with water, after the youngster has been drinking some from a cup.

WHEN GIVING UP the bottle for one or more feedings has become a trying ordeal, it may be far better to abandon the bottle decisively in spite of the youngster's fretting and crying.

To make a baby cry hard and long for anything and then give it to him is the worst possible way. Then he learns that if a short and moderate seige fails, a longer and more violent one will work.

Health Board Hears County TB Program

LISBON — Mrs. Betty Hendricks of Lisbon, X-ray technician, and Mrs. Theda Thorton of North Georgetown, nurse in the Tuberculosis Clinic, discussed its operations when the Columbiana County Health Board met Monday evening.

They said approximately 15 county patients are in hospitals for TB. Six are in Rocky Glenn, one at Southwest and the remainder at Ohio TB Hospital at Columbus.

They also discussed the procedure they use in the office, the records and the delivery of medication to county patients. A question-and-answer period followed.

The board discussed the use of plastic pipe for septic tanks and decided to obtain a report from the State Health Department if its use is legal.

The board transferred $200 from office supplies, $100 from members fund and $200 from miscellaneous to the travel fund which is low and will not last the balance of the year.

Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, gave monthly reports.

The department issued 41 plumbing and 43 sewage permits.

Gene Cover, plumbing inspector, made 48 plumbing and 60 sewage inspections, took eight water samples and made three nuisance investigations.

Harry Stockdale, sanitarian, made 37 food service inspections and 14 of sewage, took seven water samples, inspected five schools, made two nuisance inspections and held six consultations.

Dr. Palmer and Mrs. Violet Peterson, nurse, made 36 school visits and gave 359 physical examinations in which 197 Mantoux TB tests were taken. They also gave 194 immunizations, 33 polio shots and 77 vaccinations. Two bus driver examinations were given.

They made six visits to the County Jail and gave 32 Mantoux tests to prisoners.

Mrs. Peterson made 18 home visits and attended three educational meetings.

Bills of $3,444.30 were ordered paid. Next meeting is Nov. 19, at 8 p. m.

Pughtown Class Sets Bake Sale

Plans were made to sponsor a bake sale Oct. 24 at Harl Stover's service station when the Friendship Class of the Fairview Presbyterian Church of Pughtown met Monday night with Mrs. Lucille Miller, president.

The group also approved plans to purchase three more new robes for the Church Choir.

A rummage sale will be held by the class Nov. 5-10 at the Halpate Building in East End, it was announced.

Mrs. Ruby Lamb led devotions. The class read the invocation in unison. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Allison.

Next meeting is Nov. 19 with Mrs. James Gracie.

Volunteers Needed To Assist Retarded

The Lintz Sheltered Workshop in Beaver Falls needs volunteers, men and women, to serve as instructor - supervisors in its program of rehabilitation of the mentally limited.

No qualifications other than an active interest is needed. The shop is an activity of the Beaver County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children, a United Fund Agency.

Supervisors need do no more than sit at a table with trainees and teach simple tasks such as sorting, bagging, envelope stuffing, and labeling.

According to C. A. Peters, executive director, if volunteers are not obtained soon the shop will have to furlough more trainees.

Individuals interested in volunteering may call TIlden 3-8007.

75 Attend Session Of Calcutta PTA

About 75 attended the meeting of the Calcutta Parent - Teacher Association Monday night and heard a talk on the Child Counseling Center given by Lee Kirkland, vice president of the center.

The PTA voted to purchase a copying machine and overhead projector after a demonstration by Eugene Sergio, who was introduced by Theodore Taylor, principal.

Robert Veness, president, presided. Lunch was served. Next meeting is Nov. 19 at the school when the program will be provided by the State Highway Patrol.

Sumitville PTA Set

SUMMITVILLE — Dr. John Carrigg of Steubenville College, Republican candidate for 18th District congressman, will speak at a meeting of the Franklin Parent-Teacher Organization Friday night at 8 at the school. First grade mothers will serve refreshments. Mrs. Charles Crawford is president.

Contest Scheduled For Model Car Fans

Model car builders may display their best scale models during an "open" custom car contest to be sponsored by Heimie's. The contest, open to cars of any make, began today.

Judging will be held Nov. 17. Trophies will be awarded for the "Best of Show" and other winners in both the Junior and Senior Division with ribbons for honorable mention in both classes. Customized stock cars, customized competition cars and scratch built cars are eligible. Entries will be on exhibit at Heimie's during the contest period.

Reducers Face Unkind Remarks About Loss

It's a quirk of human nature to feel uneasy when another overweight doggedly carries through a tough assignment like reducing. Makes a gal feel so sort of guilty about not dieting that impulsively she may blurt out something quite uncomplimentary to the reducer.

Ida Jean Kain

If you are in the enviable position of having brought your weight to normal, chances are this has happened to you. At any rate, many dieters have asked this dietitian how to cope with the unkind remarks about their dieting.

First, recognize that this is a fairly natural reaction. In fact, doctors often fear their reducing patients will become discouraged, and forewarn them to ignore comments of well - meaning friends and relatives when they "view with alarm" and predict dire consequences.

ACTUALLY YOU can make such occasions an opportunity to enlighten your overweight friend —not by suggesting diet which might be resented — but by being irrepressibly enthusiastic about how much better you feel.

Point out that your single regret is you didn't start to reduce years before. Enthusiasm is contagious and after she gets over her first surprise at seeing you slimmed down, she may be inspired to go ahead and diet too.

To be fair to the friend who is genuinely alarmed, she is not used to seeing you slimmer. Furthermore, for a long time overweight has been looked upon as a sign of robust health. Many overweights do appear to be in the pink of condition. And it is only in comparatively recent years that overweight has been recognized as a threat to health and longevity.

Today the dangers of overweight are so widely advertised that you have plenty of proof for your statements...and support for your conviction that you're on the right track.

But let's be realistic. At some point in your reducing, a tactless but well - meaning friend may say, bluntly, "You look terrible. Stop this reducing business before it's too late." What should be your reply?

Count to ten, and say with as much good nature as you can muster, "The doctor tells me I'm fine and that taking off the excess has increased my chances of living to a healthy old age."

BEAR IN MIND that after you have been at normal weight for four to six weeks, your system will have adjusted and you'll begin to look years younger than you did when overweight. The remarks soon will be, "How did you do it?"

Send for "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Please enclose a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for reply. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Dear friends,

In adding new equipment, we often think we have reached the final requirements, but it does not work out that way.

New methods and developments constantly present themselves in the funeral director's profession, and these changes call for further investment on our part.

We believe, however, that the public appreciates and benefits from these continuing improvements.

Respectfully,

Richard C. Martin

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Would you please write a column on how to check tape on the check-out stand at grocery stores? This is important to everyone in our neighborhood.

I know it's shaky ground but please grant us this one favor,

ROSEARY ATEN

DEAR ROSIE: You don't know how shaky that ground is I'm standing on! But here are my ideas that I have found proved satisfactorily after the many letters like yours:

When shopping for specials I put all of the items that have been marked down in the right hand corner of my basket nearest the bar that you push it with. As I go along each row picking up items that I need weekly and do find another bargain in a sale item I also put it in this one stack in the same corner of the basket.

This is very easy to remember, because as you come to the checkout stand, the girl will be ringing up your groceries which are regular priced first . . . and when she gets to the bottom of the basket this will give you time to remember all of those items that are in that one little corner are sale items!

If you see her pick up a can of peas that says 24 cents, and 24 cents is stamped on this can, say to yourself "That's a sale item."

Now . . . there is no need for you to be embarrassed to call attention to a clerk that she has rung up 24 cents instead of 19 cents. Just say in a nice voice, "Isn't that a sale item?" It is your privilege to question this. If the girl says "No, it says 24 cents," say "Yes, maam, but you have a sale on today."

If you are the type of woman that most of my readers say they are, and cannot question this, let it go, but walk back through the store and check the price again before you leave . . . just to make sure.

Ladies, I have spot checked many stores and I know what you are thinking about. But let me give you another little parting thought today . . . clerks at checkout stands see thousands of items a day, and when something is stamped 24 cents, naturally they ring it up. This is called routine! Checkers are ever so happy to be questioned, and don't wish to cheat you in the slightest way. I doubt if half of these checkout girls ever realize it!

If you paid $295 for a new refrigerator and the salesman charged you $320, you would certainly question that! But remember that the refrigerator salesman is not selling a thousand items every few hours, and he is well aware of his prices.

So perhaps the fault lies with us, me included . . . and the secret is that when you are buying 40 and 50 items at one time to put all of your sale items in the bottom of a corner in your basket. This way you can remember easily when it comes time to go through the checkout stand.

I know how you feel. One thing I want you to understand is that every housewife feels the same way. We have received hundreds of letters on this.

If you have any better ideas on this subject, we would like to hear them. Write to Heloise in care of The Review. Letters do not have to be signed to appear.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I've found that the cardboard which comes in shirts in the laundry are helpful. I cut all of the hints from your column and recipes in the papers and paste these onto these cardboards to keep them neat. They also allow for room to write anything which I find will be helpful.

Shippingport Class Will Hold Rummage Sale

The Helping Hands Class of the Green Valley Methodist Church Sunday School at Shippingport will hold a rummage sale Thursday and Friday at Rochester.

The group has donated $250 to the church for new pews and carpet, which have been installed.

The class is planning a Halloween party Oct. 30 for members of the Sunday School.

Thirty homeroom mothers of the South Side elementary school near Hookstown attended a tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martha Montgomery, chairman of homeroom mothers.

Plans were made for a Halloween party at the school on Oct. 31. There will be two more parties, one at Christmas and one on Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Robert Christy poured and Mrs. Velma Rambo assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Florence Pence of Beaver is visiting relatives in Shippingport.

Mrs. Robert Christy and son spent the weekend in Clarksburg visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Robson spent the weekend in Philadelphia.

Gary Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rogers, spent the weekend with his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah LeMasters, of Midland.

Youngstown S&T Reports Drop In Quarter Earnings

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A sharp drop in third-quarter earnings this year is reflected in a report by the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. which shows an increase in net income for the first nine months of 1962, compared with a similar period last year.

The company reported Tuesday net income for nine months this year was $16,276,012, or $4.66 a share, compared with $12,431,837, or $3.56 a share, for the corresponding period in 1961.

Net earnings in the three months ended Sept. 30 were $2,417,507, or 69 cents a share, compared with $5,146,532, or $1.47 a share, in the third quarter of last year.

President A. S. Glossbrenner and Chairman J. L. Mauthe said the third quarter results were not unexpected and resulted from "liquidation of inventories by customers . . . coupled with a normal season lull in demand in July and August."

Ingot production for nine months was 3,168,743 tons—up about 100,000 tons from the like period of 1961.

Hookstown Couple Makes Illinois Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mason of Hookstown spent the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Karaba, and family of Forest Park, Ill.

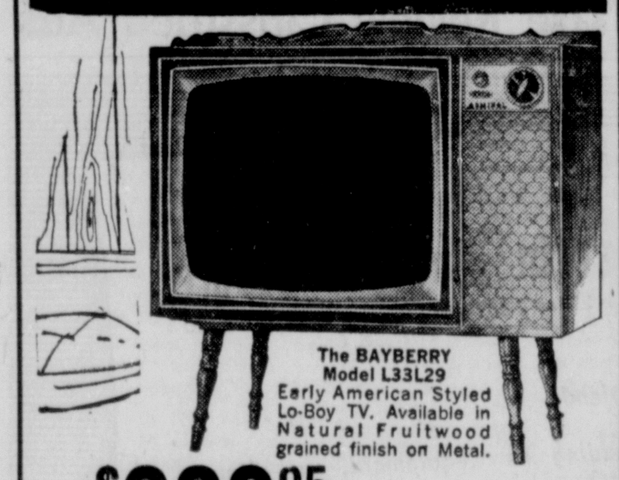

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stewart of Hookstown have returned to their winter home at Inverness, Fla., after spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and family of Hookstown spent Sunday with Floyd Cain and daughter, Etta, of Fairmont, W. Va.

Firemen Fill Rogers Post

ROGERS — John Dyke was appointed to serve as secretary - treasurer of the volunteer fire department for the balance of the year at a meeting Monday night in the Community Hall.

He succeeds Wilbur Huston, whose resignation as secretary was accepted last night.

The deed for the hall has been signed by the department and village.

One bid to remodel the west side of the structure has been received from Paul Lowers of Clarkson but a decision was postponed until Monday night's meeting.

It was announced that repairs have been completed on the water system in the hall. Gale Williams, president, presided.

In addition to the business meeting, a practice session also will be held Monday night.

Insurance Group To Attend Event

Seven representatives from the East Liverpool district office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. will attend the annual business meeting of the Central Ohio chapter of the company's Veterans Association Oct. 24 at the Neil House in Columbus.

Invited to attend are Miss Catherine Franzetta of Manor Ln., office supervisor; George Schneidmiller; 992 Main St., and Paul Nightingale, 838 Aten Ave., both of Wellsville; Curtis Wallace, 421 5th St., Chester, and Charles Scott, 1009 Bradhsaw Ave.; Leo C. Lawrence, 777 Midway Ln., and James Bowen, 405 Azalea Ave.

The association is composed of employes with at least 20 years' service. About 170 are expected.

Miss Ruth E. Cosgrove, Salem office supervisor and chapter president, will preside.

City Driver Charged, 2 Others Forfeit $45

A city youth arrested for hazardous driving in Chester Tuesday night posted a bond for a hearing Saturday before Mayor Harry Abrams, and two other city drivers slated for hearings last night forfeited appearance bonds.

Philip Alan Willshaw, 16, of 1713 Idaho Ave. was cited on Carolina Ave. by Police Chief Clarence Lennens at 9:15. He posted a $15.50 bond.

Charles R. Bosco, 19, of Park Way, arrested Sunday for speeding, forfeited a $30.50 bond, and Hugh S. Mackall, 38, of 932 Orchard Grove Ave., cited Sunday for improper registration, forfeited a $15 bond.

Palestine Would Use Levy For Equipment

EAST PALESTINE — Should a proposed 5-mill school levy be approved in the Nov. 6 general election, the Board of Education revealed Monday night, $40,000 will be utilized in the first year for equipment needed in new school additions.

In subsequent years, the money would be expended on increased teacher salaries, the board said in a meeting with a Citizens Committee backing the new 5-mill levy and renewal of a 3-mill measure.

Plans were made for a house-to-house canvass for support of the levies at the end of this month.

Apples Add Goodness To Autumn Salad

Use up the fresh-tasting new crop of apples in your favorite salads — add apple to any chicken, or fish, or meat salad. Add apples to vegetable salads, and chopped apples to gelatine salad mixtures — the flavor is the best of the autumn.

And here's a new salad, hearty and filling for the youngsters as well as adults at your table.

1 lb. elbow macaroni
½ cup broken walnut meats
1 cup sliced celery
½ cup bottled Italian salad dressing
¾ cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons minced onion
½ teaspoon oregano
2 red apples
Romaine, chilled and crisp

Cook elbow macaroni in boiling salted water until tender; drain; rinse with cold water; chill. Combine macaroni, walnuts and celery. Blend salad dressing and mayonnaise; add onion and oregano; mix well.

Core apples; slice thin without peeling; add to mayonnaise mixture. Add to macaroni mixture; toss well. Line salad bowl with romaine. Add salad mixture. Makes 8 servings.

Fruit-Topped Pork Chops Highlight Menu

A meat and fruit duo with plenty of flavor appeal is this entree of pork chops and orange sections. It's bound to rate well with your whole family.

A hint of oregano is included, along with chopped celery; orange juice provides the liquid needed for braising. Reba Staggs, meat cookery expert, states that this cooking develops full-flavored, juicy pork chops.

Rib chops, loin chops or even economical shoulder chops may be chosen.

6 rib pork chops, cut ¾ to 1 inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup chopped celery
¼ teaspoon oregano
¼ cup orange juice
2 oranges, peeled and cut into sections
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup water

Brown chops in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season with salt. Add celery, oregano and orange juice. Place orange sections on chops. Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes or until done.

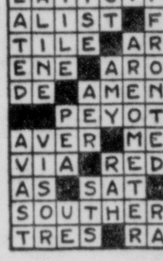

Remove chops and orange sections to heated platter. Mix together flour and water. Add to cooking liquid and cook stirring constantly, until thickened. Serve with chops, 6 servings.

Cubs Get Awards At Chester Party

Awards were made at a Halloween party for Chester Cub Scout Pack 30 Monday night at the Durbin Memorial Center of the Methodist Church.

Given awards were: Dale Weaver, Fred Stevens, Michael Lowers and Tommy Huff, one-year pins; David Clark, denner stripe, Stevens, assistant denner stripe; David Smith, Sammy Wood, Richard Mountjoy, Jimmy Collins and Mark Hartenbach, bobcat.

Mark Stevens, Dick Miller, David Clark and Billy Pittenger, wolf; Michael Lowers and Stevens, silver arrow, and Donald Smith and Kenneth Mansfield, round-up patch.

Mrs. Donna Stevens, Mrs. Jean Weaver and Mrs. Doris Beck, den mothers, received one-year pins.

Halloween prizes were awarded Bobby Harper, Dale Weaver, Richard Mountjoy and Jimmy Collins. Refreshments were served 100 by the den mothers and pack committee. Robert Reed is cubmaster.

Latin Club To Initiate

SALINEVILLE — Initiation of 18 new members will be held by the Salineville High School Latin Club Friday night from 6 to 9 at the school. Mrs. Mary Sturgeon is faculty advisor.

Use Of Modern Languages In Mass Will Be Discussed

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The use of modern languages instead of Latin in the Mass is one of the major topics the 2,700 Roman Catholic prelates of the Vatican Ecumenical Council will discuss in daily sessions that start next week.

The question of the language of the Mass is one that has repercussions throughout the world particularly in the church's missionary efforts.

Many missionary bishops attending the council favor Mass in the vernacular of the people.

Such missionaries argue, for example, that while a Mass in Latin might be incomprehensible to a former headhunter in New Guinea he could find it full of meaning if it were said in his native Papuan dialect.

Traditionalists consider Latin a factor for unity that stands above differences of nationality and local language, a cement that has helped hold the church together for 20 centuries.

Neither view is expected to prevail at the council. Church specialists in liturgy express the view that the best advantages of each —Latin and local languages—may eventually be combined.

No council session was scheduled today as tabulation continued of votes cast by the 2,700 prelates for members of the council's 10 drafting commissions.

The council fathers voted Tuesday for 16 members of each of the 10 commissions, and all of the prelates attending the council were eligible for election. Results of the voting were not expected until Saturday.

Midland Youth Center Lists Events Through Christmas

The remaining schedule of special events through Christmas for the Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center, including the Lincoln High homecoming Friday night, has been announced by Mrs. William Spisak, director.

Mrs. Spisak said the homecoming queen and her court will attend the Hi-Spot Friday night and will join the center's queen, Miss Ella Mae Wolfe, and her court in a queen's dance. Miss Wolfe is also one of four candidates for homecoming queen.

The high school student homecoming committee and the Hi-Spot committee will begin decorating the center quarters in the Borough Building Thursday evening.

Mrs. Spisak said the center's Jack O'Lantern Ball will be held Saturday, Oct. 27 and entertainment will be local talent instead of professional. The talent will be judged and prizes awarded.

Any Midland groups of high school age may perform but they must register first.

Those attending the ball are to be in costumes and regular costume prizes will be awarded. The center plans to have a new supply of records.

The center will be open on Fridays after the Freedom and East Liverpool games.

The Thanksgiving Day dance will be held Saturday, Nov. 24, when Stan Scott, host of Nine-Teen Time on Channel 9, WSTV, Steubenville, will attend.

The center's holiday dance will be held Thursday, Dec. 27 and music will be provided by an orchestra.

Square Dance Set Thursday For Irondale Homecoming

IRONDALE — A square dance Thursday night from 9 to midnight in the old high school gymnasium kicks off the community's 22nd annual homecoming celebration.

Featuring Friday's events will be a home talent show at the school, with the Homecoming Queen to be crowned.

The candidates, all seniors, are Shelda Allgood, Joan Russell, Karen Tolson, Sarah Paisley and Mary Alice Russell. Slides of former queens will be screened.

The program will also include selections by a quartet, Keith Cline, Joe Urich, Paul Ferry and Wesley Heiney, and a trio, Karen Tolson, Joan Russell and Patty Jean Nicholson.

Local youngsters will perform various dances. Bill Chetock will sing, and Holly Smith will present a guitar solo. The audience will be asked to participate in a songfest. Ray Lautsenhizer will provide piano accompaniment.

Saturday's schedule calls for athletic games for youngsters at 9:30 a. m. at Memorial Field, a football game at 2 p. m. between Stanton Local and Newell, a public dinner from 5 to 7 in the old high school, and the homecoming dance from 9 to midnight in the school gymnasium.

There will be joint community worship Sunday at 11 a. m. at the Methodist Church, and a ceremony dedicating a new $1½ million high school plant in Hammondsville at 2 p. m. All events are planned on Daylight Saving Time.

Should kitchen towels mildew by any chance, was them at once in soap and water; if stains remain, use a household chlorine bleach.

DiSalle Says His Leadership View Opposite Of Foe's

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—It is the duty of the governor to take the lead in the field of public education, says Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic candidate for re-election.

The governor, in a campaign speech here Tuesday, said his view of leadership is opposite to that of his Republican opponent, James A. Rhodes.

DiSalle quoted an article written by Rhodes for an education magazine as saying:

"It would be wrong to declare in advance what recommendations ought to go from a governor's office to the General Assembly with the respect to the specifics in these (education) financing requirements. It would be wrong, too, to pre-judge what the legislative conclusions ought to be in this area before the incoming Assembly has had an opportunity to carry on its normal committee research and has listened to all viewpoints relating to the subject."

DiSalle said he believes it is the duty of the governor, elected by all the people, "to take the lead in matters of this kind." Legislators are regional representatives and are "not in a position to represent the entire state" on a problem as statewide as education, he added.

Draft Call Set Nov. 6

LISBON — Columbiana County's 12-man draft quota for next month will be forwarded for induction Nov. 6 and another 12 men will be sent for pre-induction physical examinations on the same date, according to Mrs. Elaine Griffith, clerk of Draft Board No. 16. The County's November quota, announced Tuesday, is the largest in many months, she said.

Junior Editors Quiz on GEOGRAPHY

QUESTION: Lake Agassiz disappeared; will the Great Lakes also disappear?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Scientists tell us that since the warm Age of Dinosaurs, there have been four periods of cold, when huge ice caps formed. The cause of these ice ages is not exactly known; they may have been due to changes in the heat we receive from the sun. The last ice age covered North America as in (1). The ice was enormously heavy and depressed the land in certain places; also, as ice sheets moved, they scraped out holes and basins (2). The Great Lakes were gouged out by the ice and west of them an enormos but shallow basin was scraped out. As the ice melted, these filled with water. We call the enormous basin Lake Agassiz in honor of a famous scientist. Ice walls blocked the water of this lake from draining north into Hudson Bay, but when these melted the water ran north and Lake Agassiz drained away. Water remained within some deep areas, which became Lake Winnipeg and others (black outlines in map.) Will the Great Lakes disappear? In a hundred thousand years or so, there may be another ice age and no one knows the changes it may bring. But the Great Lakes have been dug deeply; they probably will retain their present area for a long time to come.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Ice ages sound fearful, but they have done wonderful things for us. The next time you eat bread, remember that the grinding of the rock in the last ice age helped to create the soil now crossed by the Red River of the North and that this was distributed by Lake Agassiz. It is one of the finest wheat growing regions on earth.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What can I do about my roughened and stained - looking elbows?

A. Scrub those elbows every night with warm water, soap, and a complexion brush. After they are clean, rinsed, and dry, massage them with warm olive oil. Keep up this treatment for two weeks, and the softened skin will be less likely to pick up dirt and will be much easier to keep clean and attractive looking.

Q. How can I reheat meat to its original goodness for a latecomer?

A. By placing it in a heavy skillet, covered with lettuce leaves, and then with a lid, and heating in a moderate oven.

Q. How can I clean some metal tools that have become rusty?

A. Mix up a saturated solution of ammonium citrate, soak the tools in this for several hours, then rub the rust off with a wire brush or some steel wool. Or, combine one cup of lye, a half-cup of washing soda, one quart of water, and a half-teaspoonful of potassium permanganate. Soak and scrub as with the other solution.

Gemini Pilots Due More Control On Space Flight

By BOB M. GASSAWAY

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Manual control will be used more extensively in the Gemini space flight series because Project Mercury has shown pilots can function in space.

The Manned Spacecraft Center here disclosed in a fact sheet that the two Gemini crewmen will be in almost full control from takeoff to landing, with only slight assistance from earth or automatic devices.

The Gemini mission is expected to close the gap between the present Project Mercury project and the Apollo program, which is designed to put two men on the moon.

"Very few of the Gemini systems will be entirely automatic," the report said. "There will be more dependence upon man than in the Mercury flights."

The Mercury system depends heavily on ground computers.

"We nave been trying to get back to pilot control, but didn't know how much a man could do in space. Mercury has answered these questions," a spokesman for the center said.

In the Mercury shots, the pilots took control of the ship for short periods. But, with the exception of a few minutes during the six-orbit mission of Walter M. Schirra Jr., on Oct. 3, the ground stations have retained the ability to intercede.

The Gemini crew also will be able to change orbits slightly. This is another first.

The pilot and co-pilot will be helped by a 65-pound electronic computer in planning the orbit changes and reentry paths. The fact sheet said the computer will be aided by radar in making the rendezvous in space with an Agena-D vehicle, giving the crewmen practice in space rendezvous techniques.

A rendezvous will be part of the Apollo project, National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials have said. The Gemini mission will allow the study of techniques to be used.

The sheet says Gemini crewmen, wearing pressure suits, are expected to leave the spacecraft in orbit and perform tasks outside the cabin.

In the Mercury series, the ground contro' center has had the capability of aborting or ending the mission during and just after launch if necessary. This function will now be turned over to the crew.

The fact sheet said either of the two men will be able to fire ejection seats, similar to those now in use in airplanes. A parachute would then lower the men to the ground. The same technique will also be usable for landing on the ground. Mercury landings all have been in the ocean.

The men will use a paraglider wing to ease the descent and slow the craft to about 45 miles per hour to land on three skids.

Manned Gemini flights are expected in late 1963 or early 1964.

Hoffa Will Address CWA In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, will address members of the Communications Workers of America Local 1250 at a special meeting Oct. 27, it is reported.

"We are not raiding the union; they asked us to address them," a Teamsters official said Tuesday night. Cleveland's 300 CWA members belong to the Ohio and Indiana local of CWA, whose president C. L. Whobrey, was expelled along with three other officers on charges of plotting to swing the local into the Teamsters' camp.

Joseph A. Beirne, national CWA president, has accused Hoffa of directing membership raids against CWA Local 3290 of Atlanta, which represents 3,600 installers in nine Southern states.

Midland Legion Airs Plans For Christmas Toy Project

Midland American Legion Post 481 Monday night named its co-chairmen for the annual Christmas toy program and elected Woodrow Pflugh of Brighton Township to the post's executive committee.

Pflugh replaces John Shovlin III, who resigned since he is also sergeant-at-arms.

Pflugh and William Coble were named co-chairmen for the toy program. Both asked all area residents to check their homes for good used toys and said a date will be announced when toys may be brought to the Legion home or picked up.

Plans for the post's annual Halloween party, parade, prizes and judges will be announced soon, John Waddingham, chairman, said.

The post has received a $65 donation from the Midland Fourth of July Committee towards the Halloween party.

Mark Pike, Sons of Legion chairman, reported the squadron will participate in the Halloween parade and also help the post pack treats.

Wilson Pelfrey of Industry was initiated as a new member.

Plans were made to have the post's ceremonial rifles cleaned and stocks refinished for future services, including the Beaver County Legion observance of Veterans Day Nov. 12 at Monaca.

Lester Trainer, Americanism chairman, reported the Legion still has new 50-star flags for sale, particularly for display on Veterans Day.

William Riddle, commander, reported on the post's flag raising at the recent Midland - Beaver football game. John Waddingham was appointed in charge of the detail at the homecoming game Friday night.

The post made an annual donation to the Chapel of Four Chaplains in Philadelphia.

Coble reported the post auxiliary has placed a book in the Carnegie Library in memory of Mrs. Hazel Griffith.

Post by-laws were discussed and an opinion will be sought of the judge advocate of the department of Pennsylvania.

A committee appointed at the last meeting to inspect area veterans' graves reported it will attend meetings of the Industry and Ohioville Councils to urge the condition of the graves be brought up to standard. Riddle and George Huha are on the committee.

The Beaver County Legion committee will meet Friday night at South Side Post 952 near Hookstown. The District 26 meeting will be Oct. 27 at Ambridge.

George Griffith and Elmer Folk, both post members, are reported still at Rochester General Hospital.

Armco Cuts Prices On Stainless Sheets

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Armco Steel Corp. has cut prices on stainless steel sheets and plates but has increased the amount it charges for special work on stainless orders under 10,000 pounds.

A spokesman said Tuesday the price cuts, averaging about 2 per cent, were to meet similar moves by competitors and were effective with orders shipped last Thursday.

He said the increased costs of special work, called item-quality extra charges, were designed to streamline mill operations and beef up operations of the company's steel service centers, which also can do the work.

No figure was quoted on the item - quantity price changes, which cover such work as polishing, stretching and sizing the stainless steel.

Apparently Cat Wins

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A 5-year-old Dayton boy's biased report of a nap time scrap between his sisters, 4, and 2, called from upstairs:

"Mom, they're up here fighting like cats and dogs."

The sound of a small hand smacking against a tiny cheek, followed by a loud wail and sobs, brought this even more cheerful report:

Hurray for the cat."
